

CHAMPIONING SDG 12.3 AS A PATHWAY TO ZERO HUNGER

Reducing food loss and waste achieves a triple bottom line: for people, planet and profits. It strengthens livelihoods for farmers and families, saves precious natural resources and reduces inefficiencies for businesses.

Join a dynamic discussion among key leaders to energize and focus this important work including Rajiv Shah, President of the Rockefeller Foundation, José Graziano da Silva, Director-General of FAO, Gilbert Houngbo, President of IFAD, David Beasley, Executive Director of WFP, Fiona Dawson, Global President of Mars Food, Liz Goodwin, Director, Food Loss and Waste at World Resources Institute and officials from the German Federal Government.

19 September 2017 5:00PM – 7:00PM EST | United Nations Headquarters, Room CR4
