

The Academy Of Natural Sciences
In cooperation with United Nations Department of Public Information, United Nations Environment Program and Global Education Motivators

Present:

A United Nations World Environment Day Event

Designing Sustainable Communities

A Special Town Square Roundtable Discussion

May 26, 2005 - 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 Noon

Featuring, via Video Conferencing:

William McDonough AIA

Visionary Designer, Writer and Teacher

Former Dean of the University of Virginia School of Architecture

Co-Author, Cradle to Cradle/Remaking the Way We Make Things

With a local roundtable featuring:

Dr. D. James Baker, President of the Academy of Natural Sciences

James Sniffen, Information Officer, UN Environment Program

Dr. David Schwerin, GEM/Director, Social Responsibility in Business

Welcoming remarks by Mrs. Nane Annan, Lawyer, Artist, Painter and wife of United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan

Free and Open to the Public

Pre-Registration Requested - Seating Limited

Contact Wayne Jacoby, 215-248-1150 or gem@chc.edu

For information and updates visit: www.acnatsci.org/townsquare

Program will also be webcast to selected locations

Academy of Natural Sciences Auditorium
1900 Benjamin Franklin Pkwy
Philadelphia PA, 19103
215-299-1000