

RAYA AT THE UN CONFERENCE - FINAL

(M. Boylan)

UP ON RAYA HOLDING HER MICROPHONE. SHE HAS A NEWSFEED BUD IN HER EAR SO SHE CAN RECEIVE UP TO THE MINUTE NEWS.

RAYA: (TO CAMERA, HOLDING HER EARPIECE) Hello, Mr. Deputy Secretary-General! (slight pause) Yes, this is Raya, your roving reporter, reporting to you from the field. Today's fast-breaking news story? Toilets!

That's right! As you know, millions of people in the world don't have a clean, safe place to go to the bathroom. It's a fact! They don't have toilets, so they have to poop outside. They have no choice!

And going to the bathroom outside spreads germs, germs that make people, especially children, really sick. It's a very serious problem. But wait!

RAYA PUTS HER HAND OVER ONE EAR...THERE'S SOMETHING COMING IN ON HER NEWSFEED. SHE LOOKS DOWN AND LISTENS FOR A SECOND, THEN TO CAMERA AGAIN...

RAYA: This just in! My sources tell me we can help solve the problem. How? First, we...need... more... toilets! With more toilets in schools and villages around the world, we can stop millions of children and grown-ups from getting sick.

Then, we can remind everyone to wear shoes and sandals when they go to the toilet so they don't get germs on their feet. And to wash their hands with soap and water after they go. It's so important!

Well, that's my top story today. And it will be my top story tomorrow too!

Thank you! This is Raya, your roving reporter, signing off.

OUT.
