

TV

UNITED NATIONS NATIONS UNIES

UN IN ACTION

Release Date: November 2010

Programme No. 1267

Length: 3'26"

Languages: English, French, Spanish, Russian

HAITI: UNFPA PROVIDES CARE FOR WOMEN AFTER THE EARTHQUAKE

VIDEO

AUDIO

BUILDINGS AND RUBBLE IN PORT-
AU PRINCE

NARRATION

Haitians are still trying to pull their lives together after the catastrophic earthquake. The devastation continues to challenge survivors and the international community's relief efforts. (12.5)

RECONSTRUCTION EFFORTS

Among the organizations taking part in humanitarian and reconstruction efforts, the United Nations Population Fund, UNFPA and its partners are providing critical assistance. (11)

UNFPA BANNER

IGOR WITH LOCAL COMMUNITY

Igor Bosc, is the UNFPA Representative in Haiti: (3.5)

IGOR BOSCO ON CAMERA

IGOR BOSCO: (English) M

"The situation in Haiti has completely changed after the earthquake. We can see here, people living in camps, there's 1.5 million people in such conditions. Living there is not easy.

CAMP

There's little access to water, little access to basic health services". (15)

NARRATION

MATERNITY WARD PATIENTS WITH NURSES AND MIDWIVES

Supporting maternal health services, establishing temporary and mobile clinics for tens of thousands of pregnant women in the disaster area is a priority for the government. (11)

MOTHER HOLDING BABY DURING COUNSELING

The women here have access to counseling, supplies, and techniques they would otherwise be without. (6.5)

YOUTH LEADER DISTRIBUTES
CONDOMS IN CAMP

Young people are an essential asset to community health. Engaging and mobilizing them to support family planning and maternal health efforts throughout the country is critical. (10.5)

SEXUAL HEALTH COUNSELING
SESSION IN TENT

Here, youth Leaders travel around camps, distributing condoms and teaching young people how to protect themselves from HIV and other sexually transmitted diseases. (10.5)

IGOR BOSC ON CAMERA

IGOR BOSC: (English) M

"It's very important that youth have access to counseling on family planning, have access to condoms, have access to counseling on prevention of sexually transmittable diseases." (8.5)

CHILDREN PLAY OUTSIDE

NARRATION

GIRL WASHES CLOTHES

The international community is working together to ensure that programs and practices offer sustained protection for women and young girls. (9)

LATRINES AND SOLAR LIGHT INSTALLATIONS

One example is the use of solar lights that illuminate the paths to latrines and other areas where safety is a concern. (8)

DIGNITY KIT DISTRIBUTION

Another unique initiative is the Dignity Kit, which is distributed in the thousands to women in camps. These kits contain towels, condoms, sanitary items, a rape whistle, and other essentials that are in short supply. (16)

Marjorie Michel, is Haiti's Minister of Women's Affairs: (3.5)

MARJORIE MICHEL ON CAMERA

MARJORIE MICHEL: (French Creole) F
"We distribute these hygienic articles provided by UNFPA to women who are in difficult situations." (6)

SHAKA DANCE TROUPE AND CHILDREN

NARRATION
Altogether, these efforts are helping Haitians to recover – and to lay the groundwork for a better future. (8)

IGOR BOSC ON CAMERA

IGOR BOSC: (English) M
"The needs are huge. However, little by little we're trying to set up the proper networks for protection of women and children." (6)

CHILDREN DANCE

UN LOGO

NARRATION
This report was prepared by Owen Cooper for the United Nations.