19. (1) An act:

(a) committed in the Zone by a person, whether he is or is not a citizen of Jamaica; and

(b) being of such a description as would, if committed on land in Jamaica, be punishable on indictment, is an offence punishable on indictment in Jamaica in like manner, notwithstanding that it may have been committed on board, or by means of, a vessel the nationality or registration of which is not Jamaican, and the person who is reasonably suspected of having committed such offence may be arrested and may be tried or otherwise dealt with in reference to any charge against him in connection with that offence.

(2) For the purposes of this section all offences under the Dangerous Drugs Act, whether or not they are only summary offences, shall be treated as if they are offences punishable on indictment.

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The concept of an Exclusive Economic Zone evolved as a result of the claims of certain States consequent on rapid technological advances in the mining of offshore mineral resources. This Zone sought to encompass, beyond the existing twelve miles territorial sea, an additional one hundred and eighty-eight miles from the seaward limit of the territorial sea.

Jamaica, as a participant of conferences dealing with the Law of the Sea, has accepted that there is a need to protect the marine environment in such a Zone.

Jamaica, having adopted the Convention on the Law of the Sea, now seeks, in the protection of her marine resources, to enact legislation to give effect to this and also to adhere to the provisions relating to an Exclusive Economic Zone contained in the Convention.

Consequently this Bill seeks to:

(a) establish an Exclusive Economic Zone;

(b) make provision for the manner in which exploration of and exploitation for the resources of the Zone may be carried out;

(c) prescribe penalties for any breaches of the Act;

(d) permit the making of regulations in relation to activities in the zone; and
(e) make consequential amendments to other Acts.

David Coore,
Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade

A BILL
Entitled

An Act to Establish beyond the territorial sea a Zone to be known as the Exclusive Economic Zone and to provide for matters incidental thereto or connected therewith.
