ARTICLE III

South of the maritime boundary the United States of America shall not, and north of the maritime boundary the Republic of Cuba shall not, claim or exercise sovereign rights or jurisdiction over the waters or seabed and subsoil.

ARTICLE IV

This Agreement, the sole purpose of which is to establish the location of the maritime boundary between the United States of America and the Republic of Cuba, shall not prejudice or affect the positions of either Party concerning: the nature of the sovereign rights exercised by States; the rules of international law with respect to the exercise of jurisdiction over the waters or seabed and subsoil; or any other matter relating to the law of the sea.

ARTICLE V

This Agreement is subject to ratification in accordance with the respective constitutional procedures of the two States.

The Parties agree to apply the terms of this Agreement provisionally from January 1, 1978, for a period of two years, and it will enter into force permanently on the date of exchange of instruments of ratification.
