B. Bilateral Treaties

1. Federated States of Micronesia and Palau

The sovereign countries of the Federated States of Micronesia and the Republic of Palau,

Desiring to establish maritime boundaries and to provide for certain other related matters in the maritime zone between the two countries,

Resolving, as good neighbors and in the spirit of cooperation and friendship, to settle permanently the limits of the maritime area within which the Federated States of Micronesia and the Republic of Palau shall respectively exercise sovereign rights with regard to the exploration, management, protection, and exploitation of their respective sea, seabed, and subsoil resources, and

Taking into account the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea to which both the Federated States of Micronesia and the Republic of Palau are a party, and, in particular, Articles 74 and 83 which provide that the delimitation of the continental shelf and Exclusive Economic Zone between States with opposite coasts shall be effected by agreement on the basis of international law in order to achieve an equitable solution.

HEREBY AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

Definitions

In this Treaty—

(a) “Exclusive Economic Zone” means the adjacent waters, including seabed and subsoil, over which each respective Party has sovereign and exclusive jurisdiction and rights for the purpose of exploring, protecting, exploiting, conserving, regulating, and managing natural resources, whether living or nonliving. Supplemental to and without prejudice to the foregoing sentence, the term “Exclusive Economic Zone” shall also include all rights and jurisdiction provided for in the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (the “Convention”) to the extent not inconsistent with this Treaty.

(b) “Party” means either the Federated States of Micronesia or the Republic of Palau, or both, depending on the context in which the term is used. “Parties” refers to both countries.

Article 2

Maritime Jurisdiction

1. The maritime boundary between the area of seabed and subsoil that is adjacent to and appertains to the Federated States of Micronesia and the area of seabed and subsoil that is adjacent to and appertains to the Republic of Palau is set forth in Annex 1 to this Treaty. Annex 1 describes a boundary, which is a series of geodesic line segments of finite length and no breadth, comprised of a series of latitude and longitude coordinate points referenced to the World Geodetic System 1984 (WGS 84) with connecting directions between each coordinate point. Each point on the component geodesic line segments (boundary line) is equidistant from the nearest points on the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial seas of each of the two Parties is measured, and at no point is the boundary line greater than 200 nautical miles from the baseline of either Party. The boundary described in Annex 1 is shown on the map incorporated into this Treaty as Annex 2.

2. The maritime boundary line referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be the boundary of the respective Exclusive Economic Zones of the Federated States of Micronesia and the Republic of Palau. The maritime boundary line shall also be the boundary of the Parties’ respective continental shelves, as the term “continental shelf” is defined and used in Part VI of the Convention.

3. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, nothing in this Treaty shall prejudice each Party’s right to claim an extended continental shelf pursuant to Part VI of the Convention and the rules and procedures established by the United Nations Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf. Nevertheless, no Party shall claim an extended continental shelf that intrudes into the Exclusive Economic Zone, as delimited by Annex I, of the other Party.

4. The location of the maritime boundary line has been determined by a joint effort between the Federated States of Micronesia and the Republic of Palau based upon a decision by the Parties not to use archipelagic baselines for the specific purpose of determining the location of the maritime boundary line. This agreement does not prejudice the rights of either Party with respect to any future archipelagic claims affecting non-Parties.

Article 3

HYDROCARBON AND MINERAL RESOURCES STRADDLING THE BOUNDARY

If any single accumulation or deposit of liquid hydrocarbon, natural gas, or other mineral extends across the maritime boundary line described in Annex 1, and if one Party by exploiting that accumulation or deposit would withdraw, deplete, or draw down the portion of the accumulation or deposit that is on the other Party’s side of the boundary line, then before the accumulation or deposit is exploited, the Parties shall consult with a view toward reaching an agreement on the manner in which the accumulation or deposit may be most effectively exploited and on the equitable sharing of the benefits from such exploitation.

Article 4

COOPERATION ON LIVING RESOURCES

As circumstances permit, the Parties shall consult with a view toward cooperation regarding the management, conservation, and utilization of the living resources of their respective Exclusive Economic Zones, with particular regard to highly migratory species, sustainability, and the participation by non-Parties in the exploitation of the living resources of such zones.

Article 5

PROTECTION OF THE MARINE ENVIRONMENT

As circumstances permit, the Parties shall consult with a view toward coordination of their policies, in accordance with international law, with respect to the protection of the marine environment and the conduct of marine research in their respective Exclusive Economic Zones. This includes exploring possibilities for cooperation in the area of maritime enforcement of environmental and fishing laws and regulations.

Article 6

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Any dispute between the Parties arising out of the interpretation or implementation of this Treaty shall be settled by consultation or negotiation.
Article 7
CONSULTATIONS

The Parties shall consult, at the request of either, on any matters relating to this Treaty.

Article 8
ANNEXES

The Annexes to this Treaty shall have full force and effect as integral parts to this Treaty.

Article 9
RATIFICATION

This Treaty is subject to ratification and shall enter into force upon the exchange of the instruments of ratification. Each signatory to this Treaty shall endeavor to complete the ratification of this Treaty without delay.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned being duly authorized have signed this Treaty.

Article 2

Maritime Jurisdiction

1. The line of delimitation between the exclusive economic zones and the continental shelves over which each Party respectively exercises sovereign rights in accordance with international law lies seaward of the islands of Kosrae, Pingelap, Mokil, Pohnpei, and Pakin, on the one hand and the island of Ebon, Namidrik, Ujae, and Ujelang on the other hand, along the geodesics connecting the following points, defined by their coordinates, in the order stated:

2. The geographical coordinates referred to in this Article are expressed in terms of the World Geodetic System 1984 (WGS 84). Where for the purpose of this Agreement it is necessary to determine the position on the surface of the Earth of a point, line or area, that position may be determined by reference to WGS 84 in respect of a spheroid having its centre at the centre of the Earth, and a major (equatorial) radius of 6,378.137 meters and a flattening of 1/298.257 223 563.

3. The line described in paragraph 1 of this Article is drawn for illustrative purposes on the map forming Annex 1 to this Agreement.

4. This Agreement shall define the boundary between the zones over which the Parties exercise, or will exercise, jurisdiction or sovereign rights in accordance with international law.

5. Should future surveys indicate significant shifts in the geographic location of islands used as base points in determining the line of delimitation, technical experts nominated by both parties shall collaborate in recommending revised coordinates of the agreed line, in accordance with the principles used for this agreement.

The Government of the United Arab Emirates rejects and does not recognize the boundary points set out in article 1 of the agreement, from point 51 (whose coordinates are 24° 58' 56" N, 57° 18' 16" E) to point 55 (whose coordinates are 25° 05' 38", N 57° 90' 08" E), as they take areas from the maritime zones of the United Arab Emirates and attach them to the maritime zones claimed by the Sultanate of Oman.

C. Egypt

Declaration by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Arab Republic of Egypt, 12 November 2017

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Arab Republic of Egypt rejects and objects to the declaration that was issued on 6 July 2017 by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Sudan, and which was published on the website of the United Nations, and reiterates the substance of the declaration that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Arab Republic of Egypt issued on 4 May 2017. It would also like to stress the following points:

1. The claim of the Sudan that the Hala’ib triangle is Sudanese territory has no legal, historical or factual basis. In its declaration, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Sudan states that Egyptian presence in and sovereignty over the Hala’ib triangle constitutes an illegal occupation. That statement is wrong and unacceptable. Moreover, all of the other claims that are made in that declaration, including the assertion that international humanitarian law is applicable to and violations had occurred in those areas, have no basis in truth.

2. All the areas north of the 22nd parallel of latitude referenced in the declaration of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Sudan are Egyptian lands that are part the national territory and the population of which are Egyptian nationals. The attempts of the Sudan to raise doubts regarding Egyptian sovereignty over those areas are merely groundless claims that are not consonant with a sound legal assessment of the temporary administrative arrangements that were granted to the Sudan pursuant to internal administrative decisions that were taken by the Egyptian Minister of the Interior during period of condominium.

3. All Egyptian security and administrative presence is within the borders of Egypt and will remain in place. Such a presence is in line with the exercise by Egypt of sovereignty over its territory up to the border between Egypt and the Sudan, which runs along the 22nd parallel of latitude north.
