DESCRIPTION OF REQUIREMENTS

The United Nations (UN) is a premier multilateral organization dedicated to maintaining world peace and security, promoting international collaboration, and defending human rights. To support its vast array of missions and activities around the globe, the UN requires robust, secure, and cost-effective terrestrial communication services. Currently, the communication systems employed (terrestrial, satellite, and wireless technologies) often fall short, particularly in remote or conflict-affected areas.

2. Scope of Services: The UN seeks to engage a global service provider to enhance and manage its terrestrial communication infrastructure. The scope includes:

- Assessment and Analysis: Thorough evaluation of the current ICT infrastructure and detailed needs analysis.
- Design: Development of a scalable, customized solution tailored to meet the diverse needs of various regions and adhere to UN specifications.
- Procurement: Acquisition of all necessary equipment and software in compliance with UN standards.
- Deployment: Implementation of solutions, including training for UN staff and documentation.
- Operation, Monitoring, and Support: Ongoing operation, maintenance, and support, including technical assistance and troubleshooting.
- Evaluation: Regular monitoring of service effectiveness and reporting to the UN.
- Partnership: Establishment of partnerships with local and global communication providers.

3. Eligibility Criteria: Interested parties must demonstrate:

- A proven track record in managing large-scale ICT projects.
- Compliance with international agreements, regulations, and standards pertinent to terrestrial communications.
- Ability to provide high-quality, reliable, and secure communication services.
- Capacity to establish and maintain partnerships with key communication providers.

4. Submission of Interest: Eligible service providers are invited to submit an Expression of Interest (EOI) which should include:

- Company profile and overview.
- Evidence of experience and capability related to the scope of services.
- Statements affirming adherence to UN norms and the ability to meet project requirements.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS / INFORMATION (IF ANY)

UN is using Microsoft 365, Microsoft Azure, Amazon Web Service (AWS), and On-Prem Private Cloud hosting environment at the United Nations Global Service Centre (UNGSC) in Valencia, Spain and Brindisi, Italy. Based on the Hybrid-Cloud environment, the possibility of accessing Microsoft 365 Suites of products, MS Azure, Amazon AWS, and UN data Centres using the dedicated Cloud Service Provider link should be available.

NOTE

Information on tendering for the UN Procurement System is available free of charge at the following address: <https://www.ungm.org/Public/Notice>

Only the United Nations Global Marketplace (UNGM) has been authorised to collect a nominal fee from vendors that wish to receive automatically Procurement Notices or Requests for Expression Of Interest. Vendors interested in this Tender Alert Service are invited to subscribe on <http://www.ungm.org>

Vendors interested in participating in the planned solicitation process should submit the Vendor Response Form of this EOI electronically (through the link available on the next page) before the closing date set forth above.

VENDOR RESPONSE

NOTICE

- Companies can only participate in solicitations of the UN Secretariat after completing their registration (free of charge) at the United Nations Global Marketplace (www.ungm.org).
- As you express interest in the planned solicitation by submitting this response form, please verify that your company is registered under its full legal name on the United Nations Global Marketplace (www.ungm.org) and that your application has been submitted to the UN Secretariat.
- While companies can participate in solicitations after completion of registration at Basic Level, we strongly recommend all companies to register at least at Level 1 under the United Nations Secretariat prior to participating in any solicitations.
- Companies are reminded of the restrictions of employment of former UN personnel that were involved in the procurement process during their last three years of service as per ST/SGB/2006/15, including (a) employing those personnel for one year after separation of service and (b) allowing those personnel to communicate with, or appear before, active UN personnel for matters related to the procurement process for two years after separation of service. Violation of the provisions of ST/SGB/2006/15 may lead to suspension of the registration of the company as a UN vendor.

PLEASE NOTE: You should express your interest to this EOI electronically at:

<https://www.ungm.org/Public/Notice/232041>

In case you have difficulties submitting your interest electronically, please contact antonio.pellegrino@un.org directly for instructions.

EOI INSTRUCTIONS

1) Registering as a Vendor with the United Nations

Vendors interested in fulfilling the requirement described above must be registered at the UN Global Marketplace (www.ungm.org) with the UN Secretariat in order to be eligible to participate in any solicitation. Information on the registration process can be found at <https://www.un.org/Depts/ptd/vendors>.

Prerequisites for Eligibility

In order to be eligible for UN registration, you must declare that:

- A. Your company (as well as any parent, subsidiary or affiliate companies) is not listed in, or associated with a company or individual listed in:
 - I. the Compendium of United Nations Security Council Sanctions Lists (<https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/content/un-sc-consolidated-list>), or
 - II. the IIC Oil for Food List website or, if listed on either, this has been disclosed to the United Nations Procurement Division in writing.
- B. Your company (as well as any parent, subsidiary or affiliate companies) is not currently removed or suspended by the United Nations or any other UN organisation (including the World Bank);
- C. Your company (as well as any parent, subsidiary or affiliate companies) is not under formal investigation, nor have been sanctioned within the preceding three (3) years, by any national authority of a United Nations Member State for engaging or having engaged in proscribed practices, including but not limited to: corruption, fraud, coercion, collusion, obstruction, or any other unethical practice;
- D. Your company has not declared bankruptcy, are not involved in bankruptcy or receivership proceedings, and there is no judgment or pending legal action against your company that could impair your company's operations in the foreseeable future;
- E. Your company does not employ, or anticipate employing, any person(s) who is, or has been a UN staff member within the last year, if said UN staff member has or had prior professional dealings with the Vendor in his/her capacity as UN staff member within the last three years of service with the UN (in accordance with UN post-employment restrictions published in ST/SGB/2006/15).
- F. Your company undertakes not to engage in proscribed practices (including but not limited to: corruption, fraud, coercion, collusion, obstruction, or any other unethical practice), with the UN or any other party, and to conduct business in a manner that averts any financial, operational, reputational or other undue risk to the UN.

For Registered Vendors: Vendors already registered at the UN Global Marketplace with the UN Secretariat must ensure that the information and documentation (e.g. financial statements, address, contact name, etc.) provided in connection with their registration are up to date in UNGM. Please verify and ensure that your company is registered under its full legal name.

For Vendors Interested in Registration: Vendors not yet registered should apply for registration on the United Nations Global Marketplace (<http://www.ungm.org>); information on the registration process can be found at <https://www.un.org/Depts/ptd/vendors>. Vendors must complete the registration process prior to the closing date of the REOI. Vendors who have not completed the UNGM registration process with the UN Secretariat before the closing date of the REOI are not considered eligible to participate in solicitations of the UN Secretariat. We strongly recommend all companies to register at least at Level 1 under the UN Secretariat prior to participating in any solicitations.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Any false, incomplete or defective vendor registration may result in the rejection of the application or cancellation of an already existing registration.

2) EOI Process

Vendors interested in participating in the planned solicitation process should forward their expression of interest (EOI) to United Nations Procurement Division (UNPD) by the closing date set forth in this EOI. Due to the high volume of communications UNPD is not in a position to issue confirmation of receipt of EOIs.

Please note that no further details of the planned solicitation can be made available to the vendors prior to issuance of the solicitation documents.

This EOI is issued subject to the conditions contained in the EOI introductory page available at <https://www.un.org/Depts/ptd/eoi>.
