A photograph of Nelson Mandela speaking at a podium. He is wearing a dark, patterned jacket and has his hands raised in the air. The background is dark, and the lighting is focused on him. The image is partially obscured by a teal diagonal shape in the bottom right corner.

“Sport has the power to change the world. It has the power to inspire. It has the power to unite people in a way that little else does. It speaks to youth in a language they understand. Sport can create hope, where once there was only despair. It is more powerful than governments in breaking down racial barriers.”
