Chinese double amputee Xia wins Laureus Sporting Moment of the Year
“Sport has the power to change the world. It has the power to inspire. It has the power to unite people in a way that little else does. It speaks to youth in a language they understand. Sport can create hope, where once there was only despair. It is more powerful than governments in breaking down racial barriers.”

Nelson Mandela,
Laureus World Sports Awards, 2000
Laureus Sport for Good

- Founded in 2000 under the Patronage of Nelson Mandela
- We have raised more than $100M and supported more than 200 programs around the world.
- We have supported partners primarily through grants, but also in capacity building and knowledge sharing.
- We have contributed to changing lives of over 1.5 million young people in more than 40 countries.
- We have funded key research and thought leadership.
- We have tested new and innovative initiatives.
- We have a track record driving third-party growth, having early-stage funded and scaled multiple programs to significantly increase their size, budget, and impact.
Chinese double amputee Xia wins Laureus Sporting Moment of the Year