

YOUTH EMPLOYMENT:

an Essential Component in the Fight to Eradicate Poverty

“Investing today in the employment of young people means investing in the present and future of our societies.”

-Guy Ryder, ILO Director-General

JANUARY 30, 2018

This interactive panel addresses youth employment as a key factor in achieving the ambitious agenda in the 2030 Agenda. Speakers will address youth employment globally, its trends and prospects for the future. Additionally, it will propose concrete plans of action to create opportunities for youth to engage in productive and satisfying work. Effective practices in assisting youth who may have experienced homelessness, gang membership or involvement with the judicial system will also be presented. Finally, speakers will explore ways to include the voices of youth in decision-making and policy processes at all levels.
