

Homelessness: A Prominent Sign of Social Inequalities

#CSocD57

FEB. 11TH 2019

1:15 – 2:30 PM

CONFERENCE ROOM A, UN HEADQUARTERS, NEW YORK

This event will examine homelessness as a direct consequence of social inequalities and inefficient governmental policies through the experiences of advocates, researchers, policy makers and people living on the streets. Speakers will contribute to an open dialogue on the importance of addressing the structural causes of homelessness in order to achieve the 2030 Agenda of ensuring adequate housing for all.

Speakers:

1. Mr. Brian Flynn, Ambassador Deputy Permanent Representative of Ireland to the UN
2. Ms. Karinna Soto Abarca, Adviser member of IGH for Latin America
3. Ms. Julieta Perucca, Senior Aide to the Special Rapporteur on the Right to Housing & Coordinator for The Shift
4. Ms. Nan Roman, President of the US National Alliance to End Homelessness
5. Ms. Iris Bailey, Representative from LEFSA

Buan-Ionad na hÉireann
chun na Náisiún Aontaithe
Permanent Mission of Ireland
to the United Nations

RSVP: NGOWGEH@GMAIL.COM