

Parallel event
Presentation of the Constitution of Mexico City
2017 which includes the United Nations
Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples

Date: Thursday, April 27, 2017.
Time: 13:15 to 14:30.
Place: Hall 4.
UN Headquarters, New York.

On January 2017 the Constitution of Mexico City was approved, the first in the world that includes the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in order to establish its mandatory implementation.

In this event, we will present the Constitution of Mexico City, with the experience of prior consultation to the indigenous peoples with their unanimous approval of the incorporation of the Declaration of the United Nations on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples.

The document joins the Tenth Anniversary of the Adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, as a new framework a constitutional and judicial standard between the relation of indigenous peoples and state governments and the challenges of implementation.

Speakers

- Victoria Tauli-Corpuz, Special Rapporteur to the UN in regards to indigenous rights.
- Miguel Ángel Mancera Espinosa, Mayor of Mexico City.
- Tarcila Rivera Zea, Member of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues.
- Alejandro Encinas Rodríguez, Former President of the Constituent Assembly of Mexico City.