Vacancy Announcement # 20P326

I General information

Title:	JPO in Political Affairs
Sector of Assignment:	Political Affairs
Country:	Switzerland
Location (City):	Geneva
Agency:	United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs (ODA), Conference on Disarmament Secretariat and Conference Support Branch
Duration of Assignment:	Initially one year with the possibility to extend for a 2 nd year
Grade:	P2 step 1 in the first year

Note: This position is open in the context of the Junior Professional Officer (JPO) scheme sponsored by the Government of the Republic of Korea and is addressed exclusively to candidates with the Korean citizenship.

For general information on the Korean JPO Program and additional conditions see the following website:

II Duties, Responsibilities and Output Expectations

- Provide substantive support to Implementation Support Units (ISUs), and Secretariats within the Branch with due regard to upcoming Review Conferences.
- Follow the debates in the framework of the Conventions serviced by the Branch, keeping abreast of and conducting research on substantive, current and emerging political developments and initiatives, including by analyzing information from different sources.
- Support the preparation, implementation and reporting requirements related to activities undertaken as part of specific projects and activities in support of Geneva-based conventions.
- Assist in supporting the initiatives of Member States to promote, strengthen and consolidate multilaterally negotiated principles and agreements or to create new multilateral norms.
- Assist in discharging the UN Secretary-General's responsibilities under the Conventions serviced by Branch, such as in relation to universalization efforts.
- Assist in planning and organizing meetings of Conventions serviced by the Branch, including taking care of all relevant aspects of conference management/virtual/hybrid formats), preparing official documentation, and producing substantive reports on said meetings.
- Provide substantive, procedural and logistical support to officeholders of BWC and CCW meetings as requested. Draft official and internal correspondence, briefing notes, background papers, presentations, talking points for UN senior officials.
- Contribute to maintaining and developing content for relevant UNODA website pages, social media presence, databases on national reports, as well as other outreach and informational products and initiatives.

This position with considerable responsibilities and various learning opportunities provides ample exposure to United Nations action and policy in the field of disarmament, and in particular to the substantive work of Geneva-based disarmament bodies and conventions (namely the Biological Weapons Convention (BWC), the Conference on Disarmament (CD), the Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Convention (APLC), the Convention on Cluster Munitions (CCM) and the Convention on Certain Conventional Weapons (CCW) and the disarmament projects and activities supported by the United Nations in Geneva. The position will thus increase the JPO's awareness and understanding of the whole gamut of multilateral disarmament – the conventional as well as the weapons of mass destruction spheres; build and strengthen the capacity to substantively support multilateral disarmament processes, forge partnerships with a diverse array of disarmament stakeholders (member states, UN agencies, civil society organizations, national institutions, etc.), as well as familiarize with the operationalization of major UN policies and strategies on cross-cutting issues (gender parity, youth, disarmament education, etc.) as they relate to disarmament, arms control and non-proliferation.

III Training component: Learning elements and expectations

On completion of the assignment, the JPO will have/be able to:

- Acquire an in-depth understanding of the workings of the United Nations and substantive knowledge of the work of the Organization in the field of disarmament.
- Develop political understanding of the complex issues related to disarmament, non-proliferation and arms control and acquire in-depth knowledge of the relevant existing instruments as well as the political and legal norms governing such instruments.
- Monitor and report on developments related to disarmament, non-proliferation and arms control issues, by preparing substantive and background materials for meetings, write assessment reports on various issues, etc.
- Develop the necessary substantive, secretariat, organizational and administrative support skills to assist the organization of meetings under the purview of the Branch.
- Work effectively in an inter-agency context and in a diverse working environment.

IV Supervision

Title of Supervisor:

Political Affairs Officer

Content and methodology of supervision:

Establishment of a Work Plan: During the first month of the assignment, the Junior Professional Officer (JPO) will work jointly with his/her direct supervisor to finalize his work plan. The final work plan will be discussed and mutually agreed between the JPO and his/her supervisor.
