

Migration & the Post-2015 Development Agenda: Introducing a Rights-Based and People-Centered Framework into the Dialogue

Thursday, February 20th, 2014

1:00pm – 3:00pm (13:00-15:00)

8th Floor (Boss Rm.), Church Center for the UN
777 UN Plaza (corner of 44th St. & 1st Ave.)

- A review of state discussions on migration in the post-2015 Development Agenda
- Critique of failed global development paradigms and their impact on communities in home countries and migrant communities in destination countries
- Exploration of emerging models of development centered around communities and human rights
- Strategies to engage UN member states through key upcoming events and processes

Speakers:

- John Bingham, International Catholic Migration Commission (ICMC)
- Eva Sandis, NGO Committee on Migration
- Chidi King, International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC)
- Carol Barton, United Methodist Women
- Fahd Ahmed, DRUM: South Asian Organizing Center
- Colin Rajah, Migrants Rights International (MRI) / Global Coalition on Migration (GCM)

Co-sponsored by:

- DRUM: South Asian Organizing Center
- Global Coalition on Migration (GCM)
- International Catholic Migration Commission (ICMC)
- Migrants Rights International (MRI)
- National Network for Immigrant & Refugee Rights (NNIRR)
- NGO Committee on Migration
- United Methodist Women (UMW)
- VAMOS Unidos
- Women & Global Migration Working Group (WGMWG)

light lunch served