

Statement by the Government of Kenya delivered by Prof. Samuel K. Sinei, Head of Kenya delegation to the 44th Session of the Commission on Population and Development on the adoption of the Resolution.

I thank you Mr. Chairman for giving me the floor. My delegation would like to thank the Chair for guiding the work of this Commission to this juncture. We are proud of the Chairman who is from our sister neighbor – Malawi.

We congratulate the facilitator for a job well done and for the many days and nights he spent to arrive at this consensus document.

We thank the delegations for constructively engaging in the negotiations. We thank the Secretariat too.

My delegation continues to reaffirm the ICPD. We shall continue to engage with partners to ensure we deliver on the programme of action.

I thank you Mr. Chairman.
