

COMPREHENSIVE SEXUALITY EDUCATION FOR ALL: EVIDENCE AND LEARNINGS FROM AROUND THE GLOBE

April 10th 2023 | 1.15 pm - 2.45 pm (EDT) | UNHQ Conference Room 5

Why should Comprehensive Sexuality Education (CSE) be integral in all education, everywhere? How can we ensure that Comprehensive Sexuality Education is fit for purpose and available to all, leaving no one behind?

The Government of Norway, The Government of South Africa, Plan International, International Planned Parenthood Federation (IPPF), SRHR Africa Trust (SAT) and UNFPA invite you to a panel discussion and Q&A with representatives from government, civil society and youth on the evidence and best practices for effective CSE in a number of diverse settings.

MEET THE SPEAKERS

Ms. Bjørg Sandkjær, State Secretary to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Norway

Ms. Thabile Ngcobo, Deputy Director: Population Programmes and Capacity Building, Department of Social Developments, South Africa .

Dr. Safeena Abdul Aziz Noorjahan - Principal Secretary - Minority Welfare Department, Government of Bihar, India

Dr. Fouzia Khan, Additional Director and Head of Curriculum Wing, School Education and Literacy Department, Sindh (SELD), Pakistan

Ms. Diene Keita, Deputy Executive Director, UNFPA

Dr. Sajeda Amin, Senior Associate, Population Council

Dr. Abdellatif Elmor, Professor of Public Health, faculty of Medicine, Zagazig University, Egypt

Ms. Fernanda Vazquez Rojas, Advocacy Officer in Elige Red / RedLAC

Ms. Alice Bumanzi, SRHR Program Manager, Plan International Rwanda

Facilitator:

Levi Singh - Regional Policy Advisor, SRHR Africa Trust

With support from:

Registration here