

Workshop on strengthening the collection and use of international migration data for development

Organized by:

Population Division and Statistics Division
United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UN/DESA)

In collaboration with:

African Institute for Economic Development and Planning (IDEP)
Dakar, Senegal

8 to 11 September 2015

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

(August 2015)

Tuesday, 8 September

- I. Registration, welcome and opening
- II. The international migration and development agenda: Implications for data collection
- III. Sources of international migration data: An overview

Wednesday, 9 September

- IV. Improving the collection, analysis, dissemination and use of migration data from population censuses

Thursday, 10 September

- V. Enhancing the use of administrative sources to measure migration
- VI. Using household surveys as a tool to measure migration and its impact

Special Session: Harnessing the diaspora: Developing policies, measuring progress
(Interactive roundtable organized by IDEP)

Friday, 11 September

- VII. Promoting regional cooperation, capacity building and data exchange on migration data
- VIII. Formulating goals, targets and indicators on international migration
- IX. Integrating international migration in national development planning
- X. Conclusion