End poverty in all its forms everywhere for all people

End hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition, including nutritional needs of adolescent girls

Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages

Ensure all youth reach proficiency level in literacy and relevant skills for decent work

Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls

Adequate and equitable sanitation and hygiene, with special attention to needs of women and girls

Achieve full and productive employment and decent work for young people

Empower and promote the social, economic and political inclusion of all, irrespective of age

Make cities and human settlements inclusive, safe, resilient and sustainable

Ensure sustainable consumption and production patterns

Raising capacity for effective climate change-related planning and management, including focusing on youth

Revitalize partnership for sustainable development, including engagement of youth organizations

Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages

Provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels

Youth for the SDGs and the SDGs for Youth

United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs - Division for Social Policy and Development