DCF Analytical Work on monitoring, review and accountability of development cooperation

DCF Policy Briefs

UNDESA produces DCF Policy Briefs focused on key issues of development cooperation under the 2030 Agenda and Addis Ababa Action Agenda. The following briefs focus on specific aspects of monitoring, review and accountability of development cooperation.

- No. 3 Addressing changes and challenges in monitoring and review of development cooperation at the national level [EN; ES; FR]
- No. 4 Monitoring and review of development cooperation to support implementation of post-2015 development agenda [EN] [full-length scoping study]
- No. 7 Private and blended development cooperation: Assessing their effectiveness and impact for achieving the SDGs [EN]; [ES]; [FR]
- No. 9 Citizen-based monitoring of development cooperation to support implementation of the 2030 Agenda [EN]; [ES]; [FR]
- No. 10 Monitoring and review of development cooperation at the local level [EN]; [ES]; [FR]
- No. 11 Country results frameworks for effective monitoring and review [EN]

Report of the Secretary-General

Outcomes of the DCF Survey and analytical work are featured in the Report of the Secretary-General to the DCF on “Trends and progress in international development cooperation,”. This biennial report to the DCF provides the UN perspective and policy guidance on these issues. [Reports of the Secretary-General to the DCF: 2016, 2014, 2012, 2010, 2008]

DCF Accountability Study

The DCF Accountability Survey serves to monitor, review and document the evidence on the state of play in development cooperation on the ground in the responding countries, which structure their assessment around ‘mutual accountability enablers’, like national development cooperation policies and transparent and accessible information. Survey results are assessed in comprehensive studies that encourage learning and inform global monitoring. About the DCF Accountability Survey.

National Development Cooperation Policies (NDCPs):

The DCF Survey invites the participating governments to provide, on a voluntary basis, their latest national development cooperation policy. Feel free to reach out via email (dcf@un.org) or call for more information.
