1. The Coalition

- Co-leading countries: The Marshall Islands, Ireland
- Supporting institution: Office of the Secretary-General’s Envoy on Youth
- Country members: Nigeria, Namibia
- Partner countries and stakeholders: ongoing consultation with civil society, youth groups, trade unions, faith groups and the private sector.

2. Expected Outcome

Objective: Respond to unprecedented mobilization of people worldwide who are demanding ambitious climate action in the lead-up to the Secretary-General’s Climate Action Summit and ensure that we reach beyond the “climate bubble” to as many people as expected.

Expected outcome: A People’s Climate Action Summit (+Festival) on Saturday, September 21:

- The People’s Climate Action Summit will bring together youth and civil society leaders from across the world who are committed to combatting climate change at the pace and scale needed to meet the challenge.

- It will showcase the work of young activists, local change-makers, innovators, and entrepreneurs who have already made an impact, and empower the next generation of leaders to take bold action.

- It will include an intergenerational dialogue and will lead to concrete initiatives for action.
