Secretary-General’s Climate Action Summit

Track #2: Social and Political drivers

1. The Coalition

   - Co-leading countries: Perú, Spain
   - Country members: Nauru, Poland
   - Supporting Institutions: ILO, WHO, DESA, Global Compact, B team
   - Partner countries and stakeholders: Greece, WRI, ITUC

2. Expected outcomes

   Objective: Ensuring that the economic, environmental and social aspects of the transformation of economies and societies towards greater sustainability are managed in ways that maximize opportunities of decent work for all, reduce inequalities, promote social justice, and enhance country’s efforts to improve the people’s health.

   Expected outcomes on just transition:

   - At least 50 countries include just transition policies in their enhanced NDC and LCA through National strategies for a just transition and jobs to raise their climate ambition, including:
     - Mechanisms of inclusive social dialogue to forge strong social consensus to enable transformative change without major social and economic disruption,
     - Skills development plans to enable transitions in labour markets, enterprise development and job creation
     - Innovative social protection policies to strengthen climate adaptation strategies and protect workers and vulnerable groups
     - Analysis including projections of potential jobs created

   - Commitments by investors and companies on just transition and green jobs investments/Regional outcome/ Industry-wide commitment

   Expected outcomes on health:

   - Commitment by XXX mayors and governors to build climate resilient cities and meet the WHO standards on clean air by 2030

   - Multilateral Development Banks (including World Bank Groups) and philanthropic organizations will increase by XX % their investments on health, air pollution monitoring and climate change by 2020

   - Commitment on coal phase out, transport, and air quality impact by countries and sub-national governments (TBD)