Welcome to CDP Updates, an electronic digest keeping you informed about activities carried out by the Committee for Development Policy (CDP) and its Secretariat. Recent news and future activities include the following:

- ECOSOC resolution \(E/2012/L.25\) on Report of the CDP on its fourteenth session
The resolution adopted on 25 July requests the CDP, at its fifteenth session, to examine and make recommendations on the theme chosen by the Council for the high-level segment of its substantive session of 2013, and to monitor the progress in the development of countries graduating from the list of least developed countries, and expresses its satisfaction at the increased frequency of interactions between the Council and the Committee...
- Alternative Development Strategies for the Post-2015 Era
This publication (forthcoming in 2013), edited by José Antonio Alonso, Giovanni Andrea Cornia and Rob Vos, reflects the outcome of a research programme by a group of independent development experts brought together by the CDP...
- Background reports for Alternative Development Strategies for the Post-2015 Era
Some of the in-depth analyses conducted as background research for the CDP volume, Alternative Development Strategies for the Post-2015 Era, are now available at DESA Working Paper Series...

About the Committee for Development Policy (CDP):

The CDP is a subsidiary body of the United Nations Economic and Social Council. It provides inputs and independent advice to the Council on emerging cross-sectoral development issues and on international cooperation for development, focusing on medium- and long-term aspects. The CDP is also responsible for the triennial review of the list of least developed countries (LDCs).
