Monday 9 December 2019
10am- 5pm
Palais des Nations
Room XVII

"ENSURING RECOGNITION, JUSTICE & DEVELOPMENT"

OPENING REMARKS:
Kate Gilmore, United Nations Deputy High Commissioner for Human Rights
H.E. Makeda Antoine-Cambridge, Ambassador, Trinidad and Tobago and CARICOM Coordinator of Ambassadors in Geneva

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:
Prof. Sir Hilary Beckles, Chairperson, CARICOM Reparations Commission & Vice-Chancellor, The University of the West Indies
Rt. Hon. David Lammy, Member of Parliament, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland
Prof. Verene Shepherd, Member, Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination and Director of the Centre for Reparation Research, University of the West Indies

Organized by
The Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights
The United Nations Working Group of Experts on People of African Descent
CARICOM Permanent Missions in Geneva (The Bahamas, Barbados, Guyana, Haiti, Jamaica, OECS and Trinidad and Tobago)