Sahm Venter

Zamaswazi Dlamini-Mandela

Sahm Venter worked as a journalist for over twenty years, mainly covering the anti-apartheid struggle, including Nelson Mandela's release from prison in 1990, and South Africa's transition to democracy. She has edited and co-authored a number of books and is currently senior researcher at the Nelson Mandela Foundation.

Zamaswazi Dlamini-Mandela is a granddaughter of Nelson Mandela and Winnie Madikizela-Mandela. She works as a business developer and is a public speaker and entrepreneur.

The Prison Letters of Nelson Mandela (Liveright)

255 letters, many of them never before published, provide exceptional insight into how Mandela maintained his inner spirits and engaged with an outside world that became increasingly outraged by his plight.
