

TOGETHER IN NY - CELEBRATION OF
INTERNATIONAL MIGRANTS DAY
MONDAY 18 DECEMBER 2018

A GLOBAL FESTIVAL OF PERSONAL STORIES OF PEOPLE AND CHILDREN ON THE MOVE

WE WELCOME YOU TO JOIN IN THE CONVERSATION ON INTERNATIONAL MIGRANTS DAY 18 DECEMBER 2018

UNICEF House, 3 United Nations Plaza
Danny Kaye Visitors Center,
44th Street between 1st and 2nd Avenue
New York

RSVP LINK

LIVE TWEETING

If you are not in New York City, follow the live tweeting
@IOMatUN @UNICEFtalk with #AChildisAChild,
#IMD2017 or #MigrantsDay.

WWW.TOGETHER-IN-NY.ORG

- 13:30-14:00 Light lunch
- 14:00-15:30 A panel discussion on “Putting migrant children’s rights upfront: Challenges and duties in protecting the human rights of children in the context of international migration”
- 15:30-17:30 Screening of the Global Migration Film Festival film Sea Sorrow followed by a panel discussion on “How films and art can change the conversation about migration” with the film director and UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador Vanessa Redgrave. She is joined by artists Mohamad Hafez and Ahmed Badr, creators of the unique month-long art exhibit UNPACKED: Refugee Baggage and Together podcasts to be introduced by UNHCR Representative in Canada. Moderated by USG for Global Communications
- 17:30-18:00 International Migrants Day reception. Welcome by co-hosts UNICEF Executive Director and IOM Director General. Remarks by the President of the General Assembly and the UN Secretary-General
- 18:00-19:00 A panel discussion on “What Migrants Bring to a World on the Move” with IOM Director General, UN SRSG for International Migration, UNICEF Director of Programmes, Permanent Representative of Switzerland and Permanent Representative of Mexico. Moderated by IOM Media and Communication Director
- 19:00-19:30 Experiencing cultural diversity through food and drinks from Syria, Iraq and Afghanistan prepared by refugees in New York City