Access to meeting rooms

The Protocol and Liaison Service will be responsible for issuing the following passes:

(a) Every Permanent Mission will be issued six cards of one colour for access to the General Assembly Hall (General Assembly Building) for the opening plenary. Two cards of one colour will be issued for all other sessions of the Conference.

(b) Intergovernmental organizations will be issued two colour-coded cards for access to the General Assembly Hall for the opening plenary. Specialized agencies will be issued one colour-coded card for access to the General Assembly Hall for the opening plenary. Access cards to the remaining sessions of the conference will generally not be issued to Intergovernmental organizations and Specialized agencies unless prior arrangement is made with the Office of the President of the General Assembly.

Further information can be obtained from the Protocol and Liaison Service website (www.un.int/protocol).

The Secretariat of the Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues will be responsible for issuing the following passes:

(a) Indigenous peoples as well as representatives of non-governmental organizations, civil society organizations, academic institutions, national human rights institutions and the private sector who have received prior accreditation, will be issued with a colour coded card to attend each session of the Conference. It should be noted that some participants will be granted access to an overflow room only.

The method for the distribution of all of these access cards will be advised closer to the event on the Conference website: <http://www.un.org/en/ga/69/meetings/indigenous/#&panel1-1>

Note: Due to the increased space that the North Lawn Building now allows for overflow rooms, the President of the General Assembly has decided to accredit those non-governmental associations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council that had not been accredited at first due to previous perceived space limitations.
