

THE PRESIDENT
OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

22 August 2016

Excellency,

Further to my letter dated 5 August 2016 transmitting the text of the draft declaration for the 19 September high-level meeting of the plenary of the General Assembly on addressing large movements of refugees and migrants as well as its annexes, I will submit shortly a draft resolution of a procedural nature to transmit the outcome document and its annexes to the seventy-first session of the Assembly for consideration and adoption during the opening of the high-level meeting. This procedural draft resolution will be acted on at the General Assembly plenary meeting to be held on Friday, 9 September at 10:00 a.m. I am also pleased to inform you that further to consultations with the larger membership, the outcome document for the 19 September high-level meeting of the plenary of the General Assembly on addressing large movements of refugees and migrants will be entitled “The New York Declaration for Refugees and Migrants”.
