N.B. The dates for the Working Group on measures to eliminate international terrorism are organized in such a way as to maximize the use of conference servicing resources, as well as to allow for time for informal and bilateral consultations among delegations. It should be noted that delegations should be ready and prepared, during the first three weeks (8 to 26 October 2006), to utilize any remaining plenary meetings for meetings of the Working Groups.

¹ These proposed dates were agreed upon at a meeting of the Bureau of the Sixth Committee for the sixty-second session held on 15 June 2007. The Bureau also agreed to post the dates on its website after two weeks during which Bureau members would consult, on a no-objection-basis, with their regional groups. It is the hope of the Bureau that this indication of the dates will facilitate advance planning to ensure participation of experts from headquarters. The proposed dates will be subject to approval by the Sixth Committee when it formally convenes on Monday, 8 October 2007.
