Dear Mr. Petrovic,

As you may be aware, the Office of Legal Affairs is responsible for the preparation of the United Nations Juridical Yearbook. The publication includes material relating to the legal activities undertaken by the United Nations and related intergovernmental organizations.

Chapter V of the Juridical Yearbook contains summaries of decisions delivered by the United Nations Dispute Tribunal, the United Nations Appeals Tribunal, and the administrative tribunals of the International Labour Organization, the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

We are now preparing the Juridical Yearbook for 2018 and we would greatly appreciate your assistance in providing us with a list and, if possible, brief summaries of select decisions delivered in 2018 by your institution. We ask that you select the decisions which are of general interest and/or constitute a significant development in the jurisprudence of the Tribunal. If possible, each summary should be limited to two pages.

In view of the time schedule for the publication of the Juridical Yearbook, we would appreciate receiving your contribution by 1 June 2019. If convenient, you may submit your contribution by e-mail to Mr. Wensheng Qu at wensheng.qu@un.org. As the Juridical Yearbook is published in the six official languages of the United Nations, we would be grateful if you could include an indication of availability in those languages, together with copies of the documents being provided (or, in the case of material simply listed, titles), in all available official languages. It would also be appreciated if you could provide an electronic version (Microsoft Word format preferred) of the material submitted.

Mr. Drazen Petrovic
Registrar
International Labour Organization
Administrative Tribunal
Geneva

The United Nations Juridical Yearbook is an important source of information on major legal developments and activities within the United Nations system and, thus, constitutes a significant contribution to the promotion of international law. We greatly appreciate your assistance in its preparation.

Yours sincerely,

Stephen Mathias
Assistant Secretary-General
in charge of the Office of Legal Affairs
