Measures to Eliminate International Terrorism

Monday, 6 October 2025

Thank you Madam Vice Chair,

Indonesia congratulates you and Members of the Bureau on your election and thanks the Secretary-General for his report as contained in the document A/80/177.

We also align ourselves with the statements delivered on behalf of ASEAN, the Non-Aligned Movement, and the OIC, by the distinguished delegates of Cambodia, Iran and Saudi Arabia.

Madam Vice Chair,

Terrorism remains a transnational and evolving menace – borderless in reach, ruthless in method, and threat to peace, security and development.

Emerging technologies have turned the digital space into a “force multipliers” accelerating radicalization, operational planning and illicit financing.

The law must run as fast as the threat; our cooperation must run faster.

Indonesia’s strategy rests on 3 (three) mutually reinforcing pillars.

FIRST, law and justice.

Indonesia remains committed to upholding international law on counter-terrorism, and continuous strengthening of the legal and judicial framework.

Nationally, we continue to refine our anti-terrorism law and regulations – focusing on preventative justice and ensuring adherence to the rule of law and human rights principles.

We intensify anti-money-laundering and countering the financing of terrorism measures, including through our engagement in the FATF.

The 1994 Declaration on Measures to Eliminate International Terrorism remains a compass for collective action.

SECOND, prevention and resilience.

Indonesia champions the "soft approach" to prevent the spread of terrorist ideology and counter violent extremism through community-based programs that mobilizes families, religious leaders, women and youth, and evidence-based deradicalization, rehabilitation, and reintegration.

“From online clicks to offline cohesion” – we invest in digital literacy and community resilience so that grievance is not captured by violence.

THIRD, international cooperation and partnerships.

Terrorism knows no borders.

Therefore, international cooperation must be strengthened both at regional and international levels.

We must also further strengthen coordination, through information sharing and border security capacities.

Regionally, Indonesia advances ASEAN’s instruments, including the ASEAN Convention on Counter-Terrorism, and the Plan of Action to Prevent and Counter the Rise of Radicalization and Violent Extremism 2019-2025.

Through the Jakarta Center for Law Enforcement Cooperation, we also provide specialized training and capacity-building – reaffirming Indonesia’s commitment to be a reliable partner and a regional hub of excellence for countering-terrorism.

Madam Vice Chair,

Indonesia reaffirms its unwavering commitment to tackling the threat of terrorism in all its forms including by resuming the discussion on the drafting of the Comprehensive Convention on International Terrorism.

Indonesia also looks forward to engaging constructively in the upcoming 9th Review of the Global Counter Terrorism Strategy in 2026.

By upholding these shared values and legal commitments, we will prevail decisively over the threat of terrorism.

I thank you.
