Mr. / Madam Chair,

The Articles on Responsibility of States for Internationally Wrongful Acts are one of the biggest achievements of the International Law Commission. I reiterate the position that the Czech Republic prefers to retain the current non-binding character of the Articles. In other words, we do not see a need to elaborate a convention on the basis of the Articles, at this stage. Reasons for this approach have been eloquently stated by several of my colleagues as well as in my country's interventions in previous years.

I thank you for your attention.
