

unesco

UNITED NATIONS OFFICE ON GENOCIDE PREVENTION AND THE RESPONSIBILITY TO PROTECT

In a world that is increasingly complex, unequal and permeated by technology, many feel vulnerable and excluded.

UNESCO and the UN Office on the Prevention of Genocide and the Responsibility to Protect invite you to the Multi-stakeholder Forum on addressing hate speech through education due to take place online on 30 September and 1 October 2021.

Register here

The Forum provides an opportunity to engage multi-stakeholders in a discussion on addressing hate speech through education. It brings together government representatives, renowned scholars, teachers/educators, youth and human rights experts, civil society organizations, development partners, technology companies and artists, to unpack the role of education vis-à-vis the hate speech phenomenon.

Join us to have your say, follow the discussions and learn more.

Event Overview

- Interventions from the UN Secretary-General and UNESCO Director-General.
- High-level panel discussions on addressing and countering hate speech, both on and off-line.
- Parallel sessions focusing on specific issues and questions related to hate speech.
- Key recommendations and inputs for the Global Education Ministers Conference on addressing hate speech through education due to take place on 26 October 2021.
- With the participation of Special Adviser on the Prevention of Genocide, Ms Alice Wairimu Nderitu.

Addressing Hate Speech through Education

Multi-stakeholder Online Forum

30 September & 1 October 2021

with the support of France, Lithuania, Portugal, Qatar, the Republic of Korea and the European Union.

media partner