OF THE UNITED NATIONS

CORRIGENDUM

Counsel for Applicant:

Counsel for Respondent:

Nusrat Chagtai, ALD/OHR, UN Secretariat
Nicole Wynn, ALD/OHR, UN Secretariat

1. Paragraph 50 reads:

While the Tribunal concluded that the contested administrative decision on the outcome of the investigation was unlawful, given that the Medical Officer is no longer a staff member of the Organization, a remand of the complaint for additional fact-finding is not possible at this time.

It is to be read as follows:

Having found that the procedural errors in the decision-making process rendered the contested decision irrational, the Tribunal deems it appropriate to remand the decision to the IRMCT. The IRMCT shall review, in consultation with the Division of Healthcare Management and Occupational Safety and Health (“DHMOSH”), whether additional supervisory or other measures are required for the Medical Officer.

2. Paragraph 59(b) reads:

The decision finding that the evidence provided by the fact-finding panel did not show prohibited conduct is rescinded. Given that the subject of the Applicant’s complaint is no longer a staff member of the Organization, no further action is ordered in this regard;

It is to be read as follows:

The contested decision is rescinded and remanded to the IRMCT. The IRMCT shall review, in consultation with DHMOSH, whether additional supervisory or other measures are required for the Medical Officer;
