Introduction and Procedural History

1. On 19 June 2025, the Applicant, the D-2 Director of the United Nations Regional Service Centre Entebbe (RSCE), filed this application contesting a 21 March 2025 decision by the administration to impose the disciplinary sanction of placing a written censure in his official status file following an investigation into allegations of harassment.
2. The Applicant further averred that the contested decision was based on an “inadmissible surreptitious recording” which was gravely prejudicial and lacking probative value, and requested that the Tribunal determine the admissibility of the recording as a preliminary matter “for reasons of judicial economy”.
3. On 26 August 2025, after consideration of the parties’ submissions, the Tribunal issued Order 140 (NBI/2025), denying the applicant’s motion to determine admissibility of the audio recording as a preliminary matter.
4. Order No. 140 further requested the parties to provide dates of availability for a case management discussion in this matter.
5. On 29 August 2025, the parties sent a joint email response confirming their dates of availability.
