<td>The Committee was established on 15 October 1999 under resolution 1267 which imposed sanctions measures on Taliban-controlled Afghanistan for its support of Usama Bin Laden and Al-Qaeda. The sanctions regime has been modified and strengthened by subsequent resolutions, including resolutions 1333 (2000), 1390 (2002), 1455 (2003), 1526 (2004), 1617 (2005), 1735 (2006), 1822 (2008) and 1904 (2009). As of January 2002, the sanctions measure no longer exclusively target territory in Afghanistan but now apply to the individuals, groups, undertakings and entities designated on the Consolidated List wherever they may be located. The names of the individuals and entities on the Consolidated List against whom sanctions measure (assets freeze, travel ban and arms embargo) must be applied by all States can be found at: http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/consolidat.shtml. The Committee oversees the implementation by UN Member States of these three sanctions measures, considers names submitted for listing and de-listing as well as any additional information on listed individuals and entities; and considers exemptions to the assets freeze and travel ban measures. Since March 2009, the Committee has made accessible on its website, pursuant to paragraphs 13 of resolution 1822 (2008) and 14 of resolution 1904 (2009), narrative summaries of reasons for listing the individuals and entities on the Consolidated List.</td>
<td>Following the adoption of resolution 1368 (2001), in the wake of the attacks of 11 September 2001, the Security Council adopted resolution 1373 (2001) which, inter alia, requires States to combat terrorism through a series of actions that are best carried out through the adoption of laws and regulations, and the establishment of administrative structures. Resolution 1373 (2001) also called upon States to work together to prevent and suppress terrorist acts, including through increased cooperation. It also established the CTC to monitor implementation of the resolution by all States and to increase the capability of States to fight terrorism. In carrying out its mandate, the CTC liaises with international, regional and subregional organizations and devotes substantial attention to facilitating the provision of assistance to those States that require such assistance for the effective implementation of the resolution. The CTC conducts visits to Member States and works closely with donors, organizations and recipient States regarding facilitation of technical assistance and capacity-building. The CTC is also mandated to maintain a dialogue with States on the implementation of resolution 1624 (2005) on prohibiting incitement to commit terrorist acts and promoting dialogue and understanding among civilizations. The CTC developed a Preliminary Implementation Assessment (PIA) and a Technical Guide to assist States identify steps that should to taken to implement Security Council resolution 1373 (2001) effectively.</td>
<td>On 28 April 2004, the Security Council unanimously adopted resolution 1540 (2004) under Chapter VII of the UN Charter. The resolution requires all states to establish domestic controls to prevent access by non-State actors to nuclear, chemical, biological weapons and their means of delivery and to take effective measures to prevent proliferation of such items and establish appropriate controls over related materials. The mandate of the Committee was extended by resolution 1673 (2006) until April 2008 and again by resolution 1810 (2008) until April 2011. While reaffirming the provisions of resolution 1540 (2004), the Council decided that the Committee shall intensify its efforts to promote full implementation of the resolution by all States and encouraged the submission of reports and additional information on such implementation and assistance requests. The Committee cooperates with international, regional and sub-regional organizations and as a clearinghouse to match offers and requests for assistance to States to implement the resolution. The Committee submitted in July 2008, its second report to the Security Council on States’ compliance with the resolution through the achievement of the implementation of its requirements (S/2008/493).</td>

Expert Group

- The 1267 Committee is assisted by a Monitoring Team of 8 experts with expertise related to activities of the Al-Qaida organization and/or the Taliban, including: counter-terrorism and related legislation; financing of terrorism and international financial transactions, including technical banking expertise; alternative remittance systems, charities, and use of couriers; border enforcement, including port security; arms embargoes and export controls; and drug trafficking. The Team is ready to assist Member States on any issue related to the Al-Qaida/Taliban sanctions regime and can be contacted by email at: 1267mt@un.org.
- The CTC was originally assisted by a group of 10 experts. Subsequently, in seeking to revitalize the CTC, the Security Council established the Counter-Terrorism Executive Directorate (CTED) pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001), in order to enhance the ability of the CTC to monitor the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001) and effectively continue its capacity-building work. The mandate of CTED was extended until 31 December 2010 by resolution 1805 (2008). CTED is headed by an Executive Director with the rank of Assistant Secretary-General. It consists of the Executive Director’s office; the Assessment and Technical Assistance Office (ATAO), comprising the Head of Office, three Geographical Clusters and five thematic Working Groups; the Legal, Institutional and Practical Measures Office; the Assessment and Technical Assistance Office for Legal, Institutional and Practical Measures Office; and the Assessment and Technical Assistance Office for Technical Assistance and Capacity-Building. CTED can be contacted by e-mail at: cted@un.org.
- The 1540 Committee is assisted by an Expert Group of 8 persons with expertise in the various areas covered by the resolution. The Expert Group has developed a ‘matrix’ to examine the status of Member States’ implementation of the resolution. The filled elements of the matrix draw upon legislative and enforcement measures provided in the national reports, as complemented by official information made available in the websites of governments and international inter-governmental organizations, and through dialogue with States.

Measures

- The 1267 Committee monitors a sanctions regime which requires all UN Member States to:
  1. Freeze without delay, the funds and other financial assets or economic resources of the individuals and entities designated on the Consolidated List. There is no requirement to seize or confiscate/forfeit these assets, funds and resources.
  2. Prevent the entry into or the transit through their territories of the individuals designated on the Consolidated List. There is no requirement to arrest or prosecute these individuals.
  3. Prevent the direct or indirect supply, sale or transfer, from their territories or by their nationals outside their territories, or using their flag vessels or aircraft, of arms and related material of all types, including military equipment, spare parts and technical advice, assistance, or training related to military activities, to the individuals and entities on the Consolidated List.
  All three measures are preventive in nature and are not reliant on criminal or civil proceedings.
  More information can be found on the Committee’s website at: http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/index.shtml
- The 1373 Committee monitors a sanctions regime which requires all UN Member States to:
  1. Counter-terrorism law and practice (e.g. international counterterrorism instruments)
  2. Legal, institutional and practical measures related to resolution 1373 (2001), including their related technical assistance measures, fall under the following categories:
  3. Customs and borders control
  4. Police and law enforcement
  5. Immigration law and practice to prevent movement of terrorists
  6. Extradition law and practice (e.g. mutual legal assistance)
  7. Training and capacity-building for the judiciary
  8. Expert monitoring and illegal arms trafficking
  9. Civil aviation security
  10. Maritime security
  11. Transportation security
  12. Training and capacity-building for counter-terrorism training
  13. National security

- The 1540 Committee monitors a sanctions regime which requires all UN Member States to:
  1. To refrain from providing any support to non-State actors that attempt to develop, acquire, manufacture, possess, transport, transfer or use nuclear, chemical, biological weapons and their means of delivery.
  2. To adopt and enforce appropriate effective laws and controls which prohibit non-State actors to: conduct such activities or use such weapons and their means of delivery, in particular for terrorist purposes; and attempts to engage, participate in as an accomplice, assist or finance such activities.
  3. To take and enforce effective domestic control measures to: account for, secure, physically protect, such weapons, delivery means, and related materials (3a-b); improve border and customs controls to detect, deter, prevent and combat illicit trafficking and brokering in such items; establish export, transit, trans-shipment, and end-user controls; and enforce criminal and civil penalties (3c-d).
  In paragraphs 9 and 10, States are called upon to provide to the Secretariat of the Committee a list of individuals, groups, undertakings and entities specified under the resolution and to provide any other information relevant to their implementation. The purpose of this list is to facilitate the cooperation and coordination of Member States and other non-governmental organizations in implementing the resolution. The CTC monitors the implementation of the resolution and will make available information on the activities it has taken to that end. The CTC is also mandated to report in its Annual Reports and periodically to the Security Council on the implementation of the resolution and any other information on the implementation of the resolution which the Council may require. The list of Participants to the Platform for Information Sharing (PIF) and its activities is available at: http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/consolidat.shtml.
