Financing for Development Follow-up in the Asia-Pacific Region: Agenda for implementation of regional priorities

18 April 2016 (08:00-10:00 a.m.)
The West Terrace, 4th Floor, Main Building
United Nations, New York

Hosted by the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP) and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea

This side event “Financing for Development Follow-up in the Asia-Pacific Region: Agenda for implementation of regional priorities” is intended to discuss the Chair’s Summary of the First Follow-up Dialogue on Financing for Development in Asia and the Pacific that took place in Incheon, Republic of Korea, 30-31 March 2016.

The objective of the side event is to provide a focused discussion on innovative financing sources, modalities and priorities in the Asia and the Pacific region for the implementation of the 2030 Agenda on sustainable development. The side event will also consider and elaborate on the key issues of the Chair’s Summary, with special reference to the least developed countries, landlocked developed countries, and small island developing States.

The side event will be organized as a high-level panel discussion which will be followed by an open discussion. All participants attending the inaugural ECOSOC FfD Forum are invited to attend.
