The Secretary-General of the United Nations presents his compliments to the Permanent Representatives of Member States to the United Nations and has the honour to refer to General Assembly resolution 71/327 of 21 September 2017, entitled “The United Nations in global economic governance”.

In paragraph 20 of that resolution, the Assembly requests the Secretary-General “to submit to the General Assembly at its seventy-third session, a report on the implementation of the present resolution, including concrete options for closer interaction between the United Nations and intergovernmental groupings, to be prepared in consultation with Member States and relevant organizations of the United Nations system, taking into account the Sustainable Development Goals and the follow-up processes to all major United Nations conferences and summits in the economic, social and related fields, as appropriate.”

Accordingly, the Secretary-General would be grateful to receive, in writing, the view and inputs of Member States on the issue of the United Nations in global economic governance to facilitate preparation of this report. Contributions should be provided by 27 July 2018 to the following address:
