

UNFFS @ Asia Pacific Forestry Week

ROOM: 118 | SONGDO CONVENIA CONVENTION CENTER

FRIDAY

21 June 2019

11:00 – 12:30

Incheon, Republic of Korea

The session, is part of Stream 5 of the Asia Pacific Forestry Week “Innovating governance and Institutions.”

It will provide an opportunity for Major Groups representatives of in the region to share their experiences and lessons learned in implementing the UN Strategic Plan for Forests 2030, as well as their experiences in streamlining women’s participation in decision making in the forest sector and the youth as both influencers and decision makers in forest policy and governance.

Sharing Experiences and Lessons Learned in UNSPF 2030 Implementation among UNFF Major Groups in the region

Presenters

- Mr. Go Takahashi, Project Team Leader, Karenni Evergreen
- Ms. Bharati Pathak, Chairperson Federation of Community Forestry Users Nepal (FECOFUN)
- Ms. Karen Khoo, International Forestry Students’ Association (IFSA)

General Discussion

- Moderator: Ms. Kalpana Giri, Senior Program Officer at RECOFTC – The Center for People and Forests

The floor is open for an interactive discussion with representatives from Member States, international organizations and other stakeholders.

— GLOBAL — FOREST
— GOALS —

