INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The present chapter contains material relating to the practice of the Security Council on voting under Article 27 of the Charter. The arrangement of the material basically follows that of the corresponding chapter in earlier volumes of the Repertoire.

Part I presents evidence relating to the distinction between procedural and non-procedural matters. Most votes in the Council do not indicate by themselves whether the Council considers the matter voted upon as procedural or non-procedural: this is the case, for instance, when a proposal is adopted by a unanimous vote; when all permanent members vote in favour of a proposal; or when a proposal fails to obtain the necessary nine votes in its favour. Part I lists those instances in which the vote did indicate, respectively, the procedural or non-procedural nature of the decision. Part II contains no entries, as during the period under review there was no material relating to the practice of the Council in voting upon the question whether a matter was procedural within the meaning of Article 27, paragraph 2. Part III is concerned with the abstention, non-participation or absence of a Council member in relation to the requirements of Article 27, paragraph 3. Part IV addresses decisions adopted by consensus or without a vote.

Article 27 of the Charter

- 1. Each member of the Security Council shall have one vote.
- 2. Decisions of the Security Council on procedural matters shall be made by an affirmative vote of nine members.
- 3. Decisions of the Security Council on all matters shall be made by an affirmative vote on nine members including the concurring votes of the permanent members; provided that, in decisions under Chapter

¹ Material relating to voting in connection with the election of judges under Article 10 of the Statute of the International Court of Justice is included in Chapter VI, Part 1, Section E. Material on the voting procedure employed by the Council in connection with the applications for admission to membership is contained in Chapter VII.

VI, and under paragraph 3 of Article 52, a party to a dispute shall refrain from voting.

PART I

PROCEDURAL AND NON-PROCEDURAL MATTERS

NOTE

Part I is divided into two sections. Section A comprises instances wherein the vote indicated the procedural character of the matter under consideration. Section B lists instances where the vote revealed the non-procedural character of the matter under consideration. There was no discussion on the procedural or non-procedural nature of the questions under consideration.

The record of voting may be conclusive where a proposal obtained nine or more votes with one or more permanent members casting a negative vote. Adoption by the Council in such circumstances indicates the procedural character of the matter; rejection by the Council in such circumstances indicates the non-procedural character of the matter.

A. INSTANCES IN WHICH THE VOTE INDICATED THE PROCEDURAL CHARACTER OF THE MATTER

- 1. Inclusion of items in the agenda
- 2. Order of items on the agenda
- 3. Deferment of consideration of items on the agenda
- 4. Removal of an item from the list of matters of which the Security Council is seized
 - 5. Rulings of the President of the Security Council
 - 6. Suspension of a meeting
 - 7. Adjournment of a meeting

8. Invitation to participate in the proceedings²

9. Conduct of business

10. Convocation of an emergency special session of the General Assembly

INSTANCES IN WHICH THE VOTE INDICATED THE NON-PROCEDURAL B. CHARACTER OF THE MATTER

PART II

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL REGARDING VOTING UPON THE QUESTION WHETHER THE MATTER WAS PROCEDURAL WITHIN THE MEANING OF ARTICLE 27, PARAGRAPH 2, OF THE CHARTER

NOTE

On certain occasions the Security Council had found it necessary to decide, by vote, the question whether or not the matter under consideration was procedural within meaning of Article 27 (2). This question has come to be termed, after the language used in the San Francisco Statement on Voting Procedure, "the preliminary question".

There were no instances of voting on the preliminary question during the period under review. On one occasion, however, in connection with the discussion of the item "Agenda for Peace", a non-member of the Council stated, with regard to a proposal⁴ by his country to establish a Committee under Article 29 of the Charter for the purpose of consultations between the troop- contributing countries and the Council, that his delegation had made it clear that it had to be viewed as a procedural matter regulated solely by paragraph 2 of Article 27 of the Charter and was pleased that a consensus had been reached on that matter 5

PART III

ABSTENTION, NON-PARTICIPATION OR ABSENCE IN RELATION TO ARTICLE 27, PARAGRAPH 3, OF THE CHARTER

NOTE

According to Article 27 (3) of the Charter, the affirmative vote of nine members for decisions on non-procedural (substantive) matters must include "the concurring votes of the permanent members". Part III concerns the application of this requirement: (a) in the light of the proviso to

⁴ S/1994/1063 ⁵ S/PV.3449; pp.4-6

Article 27 (3) (obligatory abstention); and (b) in circumstances when a permanent member voluntary abstains, does not participate in the vote, or is absent at the time of the vote.

A. OBLIGATORY ABSTENTION

- 1. Instances in which members abstained in accordance with the proviso of Article 27, paragraph 3
- 2. Consideration of abstention in accordance with the proviso of Article 27, paragraph 3

B. VOLUNTARY ABSTENTION, NON PARTICIPATION OR ABSENCE IN RELATION TO ARTICLE 27, PARAGRAPH 3

This section lists those instances in which permanent members voluntarily abstained from voting. In each case, in conformity with its consistent practice, the Security Council considered the resolution in question to have been adopted notwithstanding the abstention. During the period under review, there were no instances of non-participation of permanent members or of votes taken in their absence.

1. Instances in which permanent members abstained or did not participate otherwise than in accordance with the proviso of Article 27, paragraph 3.

PART IV

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTIONS AND DECISIONS BY CONSENSUS OR WITHOUT A VOTE

NOTE

There were no instances where decisions were taken by consensus. Certain decisions were taken without a vote, as shown in the case of resolutions, in the table in section B below. In these instances, the President, in accordance with the understanding reached in prior consultations, proposed "that the Council adopt without a vote" the draft resolution. Votes were not taken either on decisions that took the form of statements by the President on behalf of the Council or on behalf of the members of the Council. These "presidential statements" were issued after having been agreed upon by members of the Council during consultations. In some cases they were announced at a formal meeting of the Council (section C.1 (a); in others, they were simply issued in written form (section C.1 (b)).
