

30. SECURITY COUNCIL ACTION REGARDING THE TERRORIST ATTACKS IN BUENOS AIRES AND LONDON

INITIAL PROCEEDINGS

Decision of 29 July 1994: note by the President¹

On 29 July 1994, following consultations with the members of the Security Council, the President (Pakistan) issued the following statement to the media² on behalf of the members of the Council:

“The members of the Security Council recall the statement issued on the occasion of the Security Council Summit of 31 January 1992,³ expressing deep concern over acts of international terrorism, and emphasizing the need for the international community to deal effectively with all such acts.

“The members of the Council strongly condemn the terrorist attack which took place in Buenos Aires on 18 July 1994, which resulted in great loss of human life.

“The members of the Council express their sympathy and condolences to the victims and their families and to the people and Government of Argentina, who have suffered the consequences of this terrorist act.

“The members of the Council also strongly condemn the terrorist attacks in London on 26 and 27 July 1994, and express their sympathy to the victims and their families, and to the people and Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

“The members of the Council demand an immediate end to all such terrorist attacks. They stress the need to strengthen international cooperation in order to take full and effective measures to prevent, combat and eliminate all forms of terrorism, which affect the international community as a whole.”
