UNAT Held or UNDT Pronouncements

Receivability/lack of legitimate interest to appeal: By the time the Applicant filed her application, the contested decision had already been overturned. Moreover, it had not caused her any prejudice. Hence, she had no legitimate interest in contesting it before the Tribunal. The application is thus irreceivable.

Decision Contested or Judgment/Order Appealed

The Applicant's second reporting officer initially imposed conditionality upon his approval of the Applicant's request for annual leave; in particular, he asked her to discuss with her first reporting officer and to seek her authorization to take leave on the requested days. The Applicant's annual leave was eventually authorized as requested.
