UNAT Held or UNDT Pronouncements

UNAT noted that, even though it found the case non-receivable, UNDT undertook a final review of the Appellant's allegations and that the case failed on the facts. UNAT held that UNDT did not err in finding that the decisions contested in the application, namely that the matters contested did not constitute administrative decisions and therefore her application was not receivable. UNAT held there was no basis to disagree with UNDT. UNAT dismissed the appeal.

Decision Contested or Judgment/Order Appealed

The Applicant contested a medical evaluation by the Medical Services Division and the decision to transfer her. UNDT rejected her application as non-receivable.
