

DISASTER RISK-INFORMED AND RESILIENT COVID-19 RECOVERY
Virtual Side Event at the 75th Session of the General Assembly
Second Committee
3pm-5pm EDT – Thursday 15 October 2020

Organized by the United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction (UNDRR) in collaboration with the International Labour Organization (ILO), the Office of the High Representative for LDCs, LLDCs and SIDS (OHRLS), and UN Women

PROGRAMME

Opening Segment

Chair: Mr. Diamane Diome (Senegal), Second Committee Bureau Rapporteur

- Ms. Mami Mizutori, Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Disaster Risk Reduction
- Ms. Fekitamoeloa 'Utoikamanu, High-Representative for the LDCs, LLDCs and SIDS
- Ms. Martha Newton, Deputy Director General for Policy, ILO

Interactive Segment

Moderator: Ms. Stephanie Speck, Head of Communications, UNDRR

Panel 1: Understanding systemic risk for transformational economic and social policy

- Dr. Rachel Cleetus, Policy Director Climate and Energy Programme, Union of Concerned Scientists, United States
- Prof. John Handmer, Senior Science Adviser in the Risk and Resilience Program, International Institution for Applied Systems Analysis, Australia
- Mr. Aromar Revi, Director, Indian Institute for Human Settlements, India

Panel 2: Applying a disaster risk-informed approach for COVID-19 rehabilitation and sustainable development

- Mr. Charles Msangi, Disaster Management Coordinator, Prime Minister's Office, Tanzania
- Ms. Kaira Reece, Deputy General Secretary, Trade Union Convergencia Sindical, Panama
- Ms. Khrystle Rutherford-Ferguson, Chairperson, Bahamas Chamber of Commerce and Employers Confederation, Bahamas

Open Floor: Questions and remarks from the Member States

Closing Segment

Chair: Mr. Diamane Diome (Senegal), Second Committee Bureau Rapporteur