

Yousoufou Hamadou Daouda

Rector of the University of Tahoua, Niger

Yousoufou HAMADOU DAOUDA holds a PhD in Economics from the University of Bordeaux IV (France) in 2010. He is a Full Professor at Djibo Hamani University of Tahoua (Niger) where he is currently the Rector. He is Senior Fellow at the Foundation for International Development Studies and Research (Ferd, France). His research activities focus on issues of public policy evaluation, poverty and inequality dynamics, pro-poor growth, welfare economics, food security, and conflict economics and has published numerous scientific articles. He has led several missions for international and national institutions (UNDP, European Union, Concern Worldwide, BCEAO, CAMES, Prime Minister's Office, Presidency of the Republic, etc.)