

Secretary-General's Peacebuilding Fund

Eighth Advisory Group

Mr. Jonas Alberoth

Principal Senior Adviser, Folke Bernadotte Academy, Sweden

Mr. Jonas Alberoth, Principal Senior Adviser, Folke Bernadotte Academy (FBA), the Swedish Government Agency for Peace, Security and Development, and the International Forum for the Challenges of Peace Operations (Challenges Forum). Previously Acting Director-General and Deputy Director-General of FBA. He has served with the United Nations, the Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs, and the Swedish Armed Forces in various international roles and missions. He is a facilitator of conflict resolution and dialogue processes in conflict and post-conflict areas. He is a former President of the International Association of Peacekeeping Training Centers (IAPTC), and currently an Executive Committee member. He is the chairperson of the Center for International Peace Operations International Advisory Board (ZIF, Germany), and a board member of the Swedish Veterans Federation (SVF). He has been the Course Director and host of Senior Mission Leaders Courses (SML), and the Civilian Exercise Director of the international Viking exercise series. He has served as an educational consultant and academic developer with the Centre for Teaching and Learning at Lund University (Sweden).

Mr. Richard Atwood

Executive Vice President, International Crisis Group, United Kingdom

Together with Crisis Group's president, Mr. Atwood is responsible for much of the organisation's direction and day-to-day management. He also hosts its weekly flagship podcast, Hold Your Fire!. He has worked for Crisis Group since 2009, serving also as interim president, chief of policy, New York director and research director. Before Crisis Group, he worked for fifteen years across the Middle East, Africa, South Asia and Latin America for the UN and other organisations.

H.E. Ms. Yoka Brandt

Former Ambassador, Kingdom of the Netherlands

Yoka Brandt has served as the Permanent Representative of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to the United Nations from 2020 to 2024. From 2016 to 2020, she was the Secretary-General at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of the Netherlands. Previously, she served as Deputy Executive Director for Partnerships at UNICEF (2012–2016) at the Assistant Secretary-General level. Earlier in her career, Yoka Brandt held key positions within the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, including Director-General for International Cooperation (2008–2012) and Deputy Director-General for International Cooperation (2007–2008). She also served as Ambassador of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to Uganda (2004–2007) and Eritrea (2000–2004). Since beginning her career in 1985, Yoka Brandt has held various significant roles in The Hague and abroad.

H.E. Mr. Cheng Jingye

Former Ambassador, President of Arms Control and Disarmament Association, China

Mr. Cheng served in the Chinese diplomatic service for over 30 years. His last assignment was as China's Ambassador to Australia. Prior to that, he served as the Chinese Permanent Representative to the United Nations in Vienna. His earlier roles included Director-General of the Arms Control Department and China's Disarmament Ambassador in Geneva. He was also posted twice at the Chinese Permanent Mission to the United Nations in New York and held positions in the International Organizations Department.

Ms. Kjersti Dale

Senior Advisor Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation, Norway

Ms. Dale was the Head of humanitarian principles and international humanitarian law at Norwegian Red Cross. She brings almost 20 years of experience in the humanitarian sector and has worked for the United Nations, the International Committee of the Red Cross and civil society. From 2011 to 2014 Ms. Dale worked for the World Food Program's Somalia operations. She was also a delegate with the ICRC in Angola and the Ivory Coast between 2005 and 2007. Since 2016 she has been a member of CARE International's Strategic Leadership Team for Program Quality and Impact. Ms. Dale is currently a member of the board of United Nations Association of Norway.

H.E. Mr. Mohamed Edrees

Former Ambassador, Egypt

Mr. Edrees is a former Physician who graduated in the College of Medicine Cairo University in 1983, joined the Egyptian Ministry of Foreign Affairs 1987, and acquired a Master's degree in Political Science from SOAS University of London in 1989. He pursued a diversified diplomatic career, serving in the Departments of Policy Planning, US and Canada, Cabinet of the Foreign Minister, International Economic Relations, Arab Affairs, and assumed the position of Assistant Foreign Minister for African Affairs. His Foreign Diplomatic posts included the Egyptian Embassies in the USA, Turkey, Syria and the Mission to the UN in NY. He served as the Deputy Chief of Mission of the Egyptian Embassy in Damascus, DPR of Egypt to the UN in NY, Ambassador of Egypt to Ethiopia and PR to the AU and UN ECA and PR of Egypt to the UN in NY.

H.E. Mr. Macharia Kamau (Chair)
Ambassador and Special Envoy, Kenya

Mr. Kamau is a Senior Advisor to the group president and Managing Director of the Trade Development Bank Group, TDB. Ambassador Kamau is a Commissioner at the International Science Council, ISC, based in Paris, France, and a Board Member of the Equity Group Bank Foundation among other advisory and board responsibilities. Previously, he served as the Special Envoy of the United Nations Secretary General on El Niño and Climate 2015/16 and separately as the Special Envoy of the President of the UN General Assembly on Sustainability 2016/17. Ambassador Kamau had a long career of 24 years with several United Nations organizations, including as UNICEF Representative and UNDP/UN Resident Coordinator and 9 years serving as plenipotentiary Ambassador for KENYA to the United Nations both in Nairobi and the UN Headquarters in New York. He subsequently served as Principal Secretary to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, KENYA, for five years until 2022.

H.E. Ms. Natalie Kohli
Ambassador of Switzerland in the Republic of Cameroon, the Central African Republic, and the Republic of Equatorial Guinea, Switzerland

Natalie Kohli currently serves as Swiss Ambassador to Cameroon, Central African Republic and Equatorial Guinea, based in Yaoundé. She brings to this position over 20 years of extensive experience in multilateral diplomacy, peace mediation and peacebuilding with Switzerland's Foreign service. Prior to her current assignment Amb. Kohli served as diplomatic advisor to the then President of Switzerland, Mr. Alain Berset. In addition to diplomatic postings with the Swiss Foreign service in New York, Geneva, Tel Aviv and Berne, Amb. Kohli served the United Nations as Chief of staff in the UN Verification Mission in Colombia (UNVMC). Prior to joining the Swiss Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Amb. Kohli worked as ICRC Delegate in Peru and the Republic of Congo. A lawyer by training, Amb. Kohli is also an alumna of the MAS Mediation in Peace Processes program at ETH Zurich. She is fluent in German, French, English and Spanish.

H.E. Ms. Paik Ji-ah
Former Ambassador, Professor Emeritus, Korean National Diplomatic Academy (incumbent) and Non-Executive Director, Korea Technology Finance Corporation (incumbent), Republic of Korea

Ambassador Paik brings extensive experience in diplomacy and international relations, spanning over three decades. In 2021, she served as the Ambassador for International Relations for the Seoul Metropolitan Government. Prior to that, she served as the Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the United Nations and other International Organizations in Geneva. From 2013 to 2015, she also served as the Deputy Permanent Representative to the United Nations in New York. She has held several high-ranking positions, including Deputy Minister for Planning and Coordination at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA), President of the Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security at the Korea National Diplomatic Academy, and Ambassador for International Security Affairs at MOFA. Earlier in her career, she served as Director-General for International Organizations.

H.E. Mr. Baso Sangqu
Former Ambassador, Senior Vice President at AngloGold Ashanti, South Africa

Baso is a social change activist and a development economist. He is an accomplished diplomat focusing on international global political, security and sustainable development affairs. He was the South African Permanent Representative/ Ambassador to the African Union in Addis Ababa, United Nations in New York, and European Union in Brussels. He also served as an Ambassador to a number of countries including Ethiopia, Belgium and Luxembourg. He also served as an Chief Advisor to the African Union Commission Chairperson and participated in the development of African Agenda 2063. He also served as a representative of South Africa in the United Nations Security Council. Earlier roles include Chief Director of multilateral developmental and cooperation in South Africa Department of International Relations and Cooperation (DIRCO) and policy analyst and research consultant, economic and developmental section of the Office of the South African Presidency. He now occupies a senior executive role in the private sector sustainability and ESG performance space, and serves in the UNISA Foundation Board of Trustees.

Ms. Ana Glenda Tager Rosado
Private Secretary of The Presidency of the Guatemalan Republic

Ms. Tager served as the Social Dialogue Coordinator during the country's political transition. She is a sociologist with over 25 years of experience collaborating with the Government of Guatemala, non-governmental organizations, and Multilateral organizations. She has held key positions with notable organizations, including serving as the Executive Board President and Director General of the Alliance for Peace (APAZ, Colombia) and as Regional Director for Latin America at Interpeace from 2008 to 2018. Her expertise includes peacebuilding, security sector reform, and violence reduction initiatives targeting at-risk youth. Ms. Tager has also led projects in partnership with regional organizations such as the Central American Integration System (SICA) and the Organization of American States (OAS).

Ms. Almut Wieland-Karimi
Senior Policy Advisor, Germany

Ms. Wieland-Karimi was Executive Director of the Center for International Peace Operations (ZIF) from 2009 till 2022. Prior to joining ZIF, she worked for the Friedrich Ebert Foundation (FES) in various countries, as country director for the U.S. and Canada based in Washington, D.C. In 2002, she set up the FES country office in Kabul/ Afghanistan. Ms. Wieland-Karimi is Advisory Board member of the Stiftung Mercator. She holds a Master's degree in Oriental Studies from Bonn University and a PhD. in the same field, with a thesis on the role of religious leaders in modern Afghan politics at Humboldt University Berlin.

