

NATIONAL AUTHORITIES AND STAKEHOLDERS

Guylain Nyembo Mbwezuya

Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Planning and Coordination of Development Aid, DRC

Born in Kinshasa in 1972, Guylain Nyembo Mbwezuya is an economist with a degree in Economics and Management from the University of Mons-Hainaut, Belgium. He built a two-decade career in business finance with multinational companies such as LyondellBasell and Super Maritime.

In 2019, he was appointed Deputy Chief of Staff to President Félix Tshisekedi, later becoming Chief of Staff in 2021, where he led governance reforms, strengthened transparency in public finance, and oversaw major renegotiations of strategic mining and infrastructure contracts.

On 28 May 2024, he was named Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Planning and Coordination of Development Aid. In April 2025, he represented the DRC at the Harvard Ministerial Leadership Forum, presenting the country's priority objective of creating 6.4 million jobs by 2028 under the National Development Plan (PNSD 2024–2028).

Disarmament, Demobilization, Community Recovery and Stabilization Program - PDDRCS:

Jean de Dieu Désiré Ntanga Ntita - Member of the PDDRCS

Associate Professor at the Higher Institute of Rural Development in Mandaka, he has over 25 years of experience within the United Nations system and other international NGOs, working on disarmament, violence reduction, and human rights protection in post-conflict areas such as the Central African Republic, Côte d'Ivoire, and the DRC.

Marie-Chantal Lumba Tshimanga - Member of the PDDRCS

With strong expertise in the political and security context of the DRC, Marie-Chantal Luanda Kimenga has worked in strategic communication and public information for the African Union, MINUSCA, MONUSCO, and other organizations. She holds a degree in International Relations.

Balika Lwamushi William- Member of the PDDRCS

A lawyer at the Court of Appeal of Magnyama, Balika L. Mushi Williams holds a master's degree from the Sorbonne and has extensive experience in project management, finance, and logistics. He has worked in a variety of national and international institutions, particularly in Goma and Bukavu, as well as with NGOs such as Médecins du Monde and Handicap International.

Christian Kitungwa Muteba - Governor of Tanganyika Province

Christian Kitungwa Muteba, born in Kolwezi (Lualaba, DRC), has been Governor of Tanganyika Province since April 2024. A politician and sports leader, he was elected both national and provincial deputy in Kalemie during the December 2023 elections, before securing the governorship with a record majority. Often referred to as the “Magufuli of Tanganyika,” he is a member of the Agissons et Bâtissons political group and has served as president of FC Tanganyika since 2022.

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Internal Security and a Master's in Governance, Peace and Conflict Resolution from the University of Lubumbashi, where he is currently pursuing a PhD in Criminology. His professional career spans private sector management, oversight of DDR programs with the African Development Bank and the National Institute of Professional Preparation, Chief of Staff to the Haut-Katanga Provincial Minister of Mines, and Administrator of the state-owned oil company COBIL SA.

As Governor, he has introduced a five-year development plan focused on strengthening security, enhancing the province's economic appeal, and reforming the mining sector in Tanganyika, a province rich in lithium, cobalt, and gold.