

THE PRESIDENT OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

03 July 2017

Excellency,

Further to my letter dated 19 June, please find enclosed a letter received on 30 June 2017 from H.E Ms. Alya Ahmed Saif Al-Thani, Permanent Representative of the State of Qatar to the United Nations, and H.E. Mr. Marc Pecsteen de Buytsverve, Permanent Representative of Belgium to the United Nations, co-facilitators of the intergovernmental negotiations which aim at producing a short and concise political declaration for adoption at the opening plenary of the high-level meeting on the implementation of the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons.

In their letter, the co-facilitators circulate a revised version ("Rev.1") of the draft political declaration to all Member States.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Peter Thomson'.

Peter Thomson

All Permanent Representatives and Permanent Observers to the United Nations
New York

KINGDOM OF BELGIUM

www.diplomatie.belgium.be

30 June 2017

Excellency,

Further to our meeting of June 29, please find attached a revised version (“rev1”) of the political declaration on the implementation of the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons.

We very much look forward to discussing this revised text with all delegations on Thursday, 6 July (10:00 am Conference Room 3).

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of our highest consideration.

H.E. Mr. Marc Pecsteen de Buytsverve
Permanent Representative of Belgium
to the United Nations

H.E. Ms. Alya Ahmed Saif Al-Thani
Permanent Representative of the State of Qatar
to the United Nations

To All Permanent Representatives and Permanent Observers to the United Nations
New York

Political Declaration on the Implementation of the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons

1. We, the States Members of the United Nations, reaffirm the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons and our commitments therein to end this heinous crime. (based on the preambular para, A/Res/64/293 Annex)

2. We recall and reaffirm our commitments to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, including commitments that relate to trafficking in persons, which are relevant to the implementation of the Global Plan of Action and recognize the importance of partnerships in this regard. (based on PP16, E/CN.15/2017/L.2/Rev.1 and PP8, A/Res/71/167)

3. We reiterate our strong condemnation of trafficking in persons, especially women and children, which constitutes an offence and a serious threat to human dignity and physical integrity, human rights and development, and which requires the implementation of a comprehensive approach that includes partnerships and measures to prevent it, to prosecute and punish the traffickers and to protect the victims, as well as a criminal justice response commensurate to the serious nature of the offence. (based on PP1, E/CN.15/2017/L.2/Rev.1)

4. We reaffirm the crucial importance of universal ratification of the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, taking into consideration the central role of those instruments in the fight against trafficking in persons, and urge Member States that have not yet done so to consider ratifying or acceding to the Convention and its Protocols, as a matter of priority. We urge States parties to those instruments to implement them fully and effectively, and welcome the decision of the Conference of the Parties to the UN Convention Against Transnational Organized Crime to continue the process of establishing a mechanism for the review of the implementation of the Convention and the Protocols thereto, including the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children. (based on PP16(a), OP3, and PP7, A/Res/64/293; OP2 of CTOC/COP/2016/15)

5. We also recognize the importance of universal ratification and implementation of other relevant international instruments that address trafficking in persons. (based on PP16(a), A/Res/64/293; PP6(a), E/CN.15/2017/L.2/Rev.1; PP9(a), A/Res/70/179; PP7(a), A/Res/68/192).

6. We reaffirm our recognition that “trafficking in persons” shall mean the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of persons, by means of the threat or use of force or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power or of a position of vulnerability or of the giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another person, for the purpose of exploitation, which includes, at a minimum, the exploitation of the prostitution of others or other forms of sexual exploitation, forced labour or services, slavery or practices similar to slavery, servitude or the removal of organs, as set forth in the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children. (ref: OP2, A/Res/64/293 Annex, and Article 3(a), Palermo Protocol)

7. We evince our strong political will to step up efforts against trafficking in persons, wherever it may occur. (based on PP10, E/CN.15/2017/L.2/Rev.1 and OP13, A/Res/64/293)

8. We express solidarity with and compassion for victims of trafficking, and encourage further consideration of incorporating the perspective and experience of survivors in all efforts to combat human trafficking. We will ensure appropriate care, support and reintegration of victims, working closely with civil society. We will also undertake appropriate measures and protections for victims in criminal justice processes. (based on OP22, S/Res/2331 (2016) and para 11, S/PRST/2015/25 as well as various paras of 64/293).

9. We reaffirm our support for the United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund for Victims of Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, established in accordance with the Global Plan of Action, aimed at providing victims of trafficking in persons with humanitarian, legal and financial aid through established channels of assistance, such as governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, and we invite all stakeholders to contribute to the trust fund, including through the announcement of pledges at high level appraisals of the Global Plan of Action. (based on para 38, A/Res/64/293 Annex)

10. We stress the need to ensure overall organization and coherence in the efforts of the United Nations system to respond to trafficking in persons, especially in ensuring support to Member States. In this regard, we urge the Secretary-General to continue efforts to strengthen coordination within the United Nations system, including through the Inter-Agency Coordination Group against Trafficking in Persons (ICAT) under the coordination of UNODC. We encourage ICAT to expand its working group to include UN agencies that are not active in the Group but have a role in addressing trafficking in persons. (based on OP59, A/Res/64/293 Annex; OP12-13, A/Res/61/180; OP8, A/Res/68/192; OP10, A/Res/70/179; and PP7 and OP8, E/CN.15/2017/L.2/Rev.1 (2017))

11. We recognize the critical role played by ICAT in the UN system and invite ICAT to continue to increase its activities related to the implementation of the Global Plan of Action and, to this end, to incorporate aspects of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development relevant to preventing and combating trafficking in persons and to consider how future activities will be coordinated and how the duplication of efforts will be avoided (based on OP7, E/CN.15/2017/L.2/Rev.1 (2017))

12. We reaffirm the central role of the work of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in the global fight against trafficking in persons, particularly in providing technical assistance to Member States, upon their request, to implement the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, by making use of existing capacity-building tools, lessons learned from Member States and expertise available in other international organizations. (based on OP9, A/Res/64/293 Annex; PP17, A/Res/70/179; PP14, A/Res/68/192).

13. We reiterate the need for improved data collection and analysis of trafficking in persons, disaggregated by sex, age and other relevant factors, including the form of exploitation, to effectively counter human trafficking. We thus recognize the importance of improved data collection by national authorities, and will enhance international cooperation to this end. We will do so consistent with our national legislation on data protection, if applicable, and our international obligations related to privacy, as applicable. (based on para 40, A/Res/71/1)

14. We take note with appreciation of the Global Report on Trafficking in Persons 2016, prepared by the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) pursuant to the Global Plan of Action, and request UNODC to continue to collect information on patterns, forms and flows of trafficking in persons, at the national, regional and international levels, in a balanced, reliable and comprehensive manner to be published in the Global Report on Trafficking in Persons, and to further expand ongoing research to estimate the prevalence of trafficking in persons in close cooperation and collaboration with Member States, in order to track progress towards attainment of the Sustainable Development Goals. (based on OP5, E/CN.15/2017/L.2/Rev.1 and OP60, A/Res/64/293 Annex)

15. We welcome the New York Declaration for Refugees and Migrants, which, inter alia, recognized that refugees and migrants in large movements are at greater risk of being trafficked and of being subjected to forced labour. We will, with full respect for our obligations under international law, vigorously combat human trafficking with a view to its elimination, including through targeted measures to identify victims of human trafficking or those at risk of trafficking. We will provide support for the victims of human trafficking and work to prevent human trafficking among those affected by displacement. (based on para 35, A/Res/71/1)

16. We reiterate our recognition of and our commitment to take steps to address the particular vulnerabilities of women and children during the journey from country of origin to country of arrival, including their potential exposure to human trafficking and contemporary forms of slavery, including through the development of age-and-gender sensitive policies and programmes to address the vulnerability of all migrants, particularly women and girl migrants, to being trafficked. We also welcome reinforced technical cooperation, on a regional and bilateral basis, between countries of origin, transit and destination on the prevention of human trafficking and the prosecution of traffickers. (based on paras 29 and 36, A/Res/71/1; and OP34, A/Res/71/167)

17. We express our serious concern that an increasing number of women and girls are being trafficked and recognise that trafficking in persons disproportionately affects women and girls and that it is essential to ensure that women are empowered to effectively and meaningfully participate in leadership and decision-making processes, that their needs and interests are prioritized in strategies and responses and that the human rights of women and girls are promoted and protected. (based on PP17, A/Res/71/167 and Para12, CSW60 Agreed Conclusions)

18. We recall the particular emphasis placed on taking into account the special needs of women and children in the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the Organized Crime Convention and call upon States parties to implement the gender-specific elements of the Protocol, such as the commitment to establish comprehensive policies, programmes and other measures to protect women and children who have been trafficked from revictimization. (based on PP2 and OP7, E/CN.15/2017/L.9/Rev.1)

19. We reaffirm our commitment to address the social, economic, cultural, political and other factors that make people vulnerable to trafficking in persons, such as poverty, unemployment, inequality, humanitarian emergencies, including armed conflicts and natural disasters, sexual violence, gender discrimination, social exclusion and marginalization, as well as a culture of tolerance towards violence against women, youth and children. (based on OP12, A/Res/64/293 Annex)

20. We recognize that the issue of trafficking in persons in conflict situations, humanitarian crises and natural disasters requires further attention. We call for serious consideration to be given to training of all peacekeeping personnel to be deployed in UN peace operations in conflict and post-conflict zones on responding to trafficking in persons in the context of armed conflict. We further encourage all UN entities and bodies to train their personnel and build technical capacity to assess situations for instances of trafficking in persons in armed conflict, humanitarian crises and natural disaster and that they work together to identify, prevent and respond effectively to victims of trafficking. (based on OP17, OP19 and OP20, S/Res/2331 (2016))

21. We condemn the increasing attempts by armed groups, including terrorist groups, to normalize human trafficking as a method of finance, a weapon of war, and an element of terrorist narrative. (based on S/Res/2195 (2014), S/Res/2253 (2015), and S/Res/2331 (2016))

22 We note with concern the criminal misuse of information and communications technologies, particularly the Internet, to facilitate the trafficking of persons, and emphasize the importance of countering such use while respecting human rights and fundamental freedoms including the right to privacy and in compliance with other obligations under international law. (based on PP14, S/Res/2331 (2016))

23. We condemn the involvement of criminal groups and unethical medical personnel in trafficking in persons for the purpose of organ removal. (based on PP7, CCPCJ resolution 23/2 (2014))

24. We reiterate, in the strongest terms possible, the importance of strengthening collective action to end human trafficking by Member States, including through strengthening partnerships with national coordination mechanisms, the United Nations System and other stakeholders, including, inter alia, regional and international organizations, non-governmental organizations, the private sector, and the media. In particular, we underline the invaluable work of national human rights institutions compliant with the Paris principles, the Special Rapporteur on Trafficking in persons, especially women and children, the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of slavery, civil society, academic institutions, parliamentarians and the private sector, in combatting trafficking in persons, and welcome their continued efforts to implement the Global Plan of Action and this political declaration. (based on OP9, A/Res/71/287)

25. We will promote partnerships and engage the business community and civil society, including non-governmental organizations, in developing and implementing sustainable initiatives to prevent and combat human trafficking in supply chains, taking into account the views and experiences of trafficked persons in designing, implementing, monitoring and evaluating such initiatives, and encourage businesses to become supporters of the Global Compact and the Athens Ethical Principles, which underscore the importance of respect for human rights by businesses and their participation in efforts to combat human trafficking. (based on OP6(g) and 7(a), A/HRC/23/L.8)

26. We recognize that arrangements are needed to ensure systematic follow-up to and review of all of the commitments we are making today, including in the quadrennial high-level meetings of the General Assembly to appraise progress achieved in the implementation of the Global Plan of Action. (based on OP6, A/Res/64/293; OP88, A/Res/71/1; and OP4, A/Res/70/179)