

Stocktaking Segment

Lysa John, Secretary-General, CIVICUS

Lysa John is Secretary-General of CIVICUS, which is a global alliance dedicated to protecting civil society and civic freedoms. She is passionate about governance accountability and social justice and has spent a large part of her work coordinating large-scale civil society campaigns, including 'Wada Na Todo Abhiyan' (Don't Break the Promise campaign, India) and the Global Call to Action against Poverty. Her past roles include serving as Head of Outreach for the UN Secretary General's High-Level Panel on the Post-2015 Agenda and Global Campaign Director for Save the Children International. Lysa has authored several reports, including assessments on the role and influence of emerging powers. She currently lives in South Africa and can be reached through her Twitter handle: @lysajohn.

Alicia Barcena, Executive Secretary, UN Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean

Ms. Bárcena assumed office as the Executive Secretary of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) on 1 July 2008. She had previously served as the Under-Secretary-General for Management at United Nations Headquarters in New York, Chef de Cabinet and Deputy Chef de Cabinet to the former Secretary-General, Mr. Kofi Annan. Alicia Bárcena held the post of Deputy Executive Secretary and Director of ECLAC's Environment and Human Settlements Division. Prior to her time at ECLAC, Ms. Bárcena served as Co-ordinator of the Latin American and Caribbean Sustainable Development Programme of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), responsible for the Environmental Citizenship Project at the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP).

Elliott Harris, Assistant Secretary-General and Chief Economist, UN Department for Economic and Social Affairs

United Nations Secretary-General António Guterres appointed Mr. Elliott Harris of Trinidad and Tobago as Assistant Secretary-General for Economic Development and Chief Economist effective 2 April 2018. Mr. Harris brings over 25 years of international experience in the fields of international economics and development policy analysis, coupled with knowledge of the United Nations system, multilateral and inter-agency coordination processes. He has extensive experience in the design of macroeconomic policies and its application as a central instrument for the reduction of poverty and for resilient and sustained economic development. His work in the field of economics also focuses on the macroeconomic linkages with global social and environmental policies. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Harris served as Assistant Secretary-General and Head of the New York Office of the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) from 2015. Prior to joining UNEP, Mr. Harris worked with the International Monetary Fund (IMF). Mr. Harris holds a Bachelor of Science degree in German and political science and an advanced degree in economics. He was awarded an Advanced Studies Certificate in international economics and policy research from the Institute of World Economics in Kiel, Germany.

Ana Patricia Muñoz, Southern Voice / Executive Director, Grupo FARO

Ana Patricia Muñoz is the Executive Director of Grupo FARO, non-partisan Ecuadorian research center that influences public policy and promotes practices for social transformation and innovation. Before joining Grupo FARO, Ana Patricia was an Assistant Vice President at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston where she served as Director of Research Community Development Department. Ana Patricia has written more than 18 research reports, book chapters and articles published in academic journals, and is frequently invited to give conferences and seminars. She holds a MPA from Brown University, a Ms. in Economics from the University of Montreal and a BS. in Economics from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Ecuador.

Interactive Dialogue I: Tackling the Structural Gaps

Elliott Harris, Assistant Secretary-General and Chief Economist, UN Department for Economic and Social Affairs

United Nations Secretary-General António Guterres appointed Mr. Elliott Harris of Trinidad and Tobago as Assistant Secretary-General for Economic Development and Chief Economist effective 2 April 2018. Mr. Harris brings over 25 years of international experience in the fields of international economics and development policy analysis, coupled with knowledge of the United Nations system, multilateral and inter-agency coordination processes. He has extensive experience in the design of macroeconomic policies and its application as a central instrument for the reduction of poverty and for resilient and sustained economic development. His work in the field of economics

also focuses on the macroeconomic linkages with global social and environmental policies. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Harris served as Assistant Secretary-General and Head of the New York Office of the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) from 2015. Prior to joining UNEP, Mr. Harris worked with the International Monetary Fund (IMF). Mr. Harris holds a Bachelor of Science degree in German and political science and an advanced degree in economics. He was awarded an Advanced Studies Certificate in international economics and policy research from the Institute of World Economics in Kiel, Germany.

Li Yong, Director General, United Nations Industrial Development Organization

Li Yong, Director General of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO), has had an extensive career as a senior economic and financial policy-maker. As Vice-Minister of Finance of the People's Republic of China and member of the Monetary Policy Committee of the Central Bank for a decade, Mr. Li was involved in setting and harmonizing fiscal, monetary and industrial policies, and in supporting sound economic growth in China. He pushed forward financial sector reform, and prompted major financial institutions to establish corporate governance, deal with toxic assets and strengthen risk management. Mr. Li gave great importance to fiscal and financial measures in favor of agricultural development and SMEs, the cornerstones for creating economic opportunities, reducing poverty and promoting gender equality. He played a key role in China's cooperation with multilateral development organizations, such as the World Bank

Group and the Asian Development Bank.

The Honorable Marsha Caddle, MP and Minister in the Ministry of Economic Affairs and Investment of Barbados

Marsha Caddle is an economist, Member of Parliament and Minister for Economic Affairs and Investment in Barbados. Her specialties in Economics are financing for development; economic governance; competitiveness and investment; and inequality, social protection and human development. Prior to joining the Cabinet of Barbados, Ms. Caddle worked with the Caribbean Development Bank, following her role as Programme Manager, Poverty and Economic Security with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP). She also formerly managed the Economic Security and Rights programme of the then United Nations Development Fund for Women (UNIFEM) Caribbean Office.

Ms. Caddle received her Economics training at the Universidad Católica Santo Domingo, and has since continued her training in International Economics with the University of Utah, and in Poverty Analysis and Measurement with the Oxford Poverty and Human Development Initiative.

In her current role, Minister Caddle leads on Government's climate action and climate finance agenda, spearheading Barbados's Roofs to Reefs programme, which is a multi-year investment roadmap for climate resilient development. Her Ministry also has responsibility for public investment, economic research and policy, physical planning and development, competitiveness and the growth environment, and data and national statistics.

Pamela Coke-Hamilton, Executive Director, International Trade Center

Pamela Coke-Hamilton has served as Executive Director of the International Trade Centre since 1 October 2020. She joined ITC from the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), where she was Director of the Division on International Trade and Commodities. Ms. Coke-Hamilton has a breadth of experience and expertise in trade-related capacity-building and sustainable development. She served with the Jamaican Government, the Caribbean Forum in trade negotiations, and multilateral institutions, including the Organization of American States and InterAmerican Development Bank. She previously served as Executive Director of the Caribbean Export Development Agency, strengthening the private sector and micro, small and medium enterprises through investment promotion. Ms. Coke-Hamilton holds a Juris Doctor in Law from the Georgetown University School of Law in Washington, DC, and a BSc in International Relations and Economics from the University of the West Indies, Kingston, Jamaica.

Interactive Dialogue II: The UN Development System – new needs, new tools, new mechanisms to recover better

Sherwin Bryce-Pease, UN Bureau Chief, South Africa Broadcast Cooperation

Sherwin has been with SABCNEWS since May 2002 and as Correspondent and Bureau Chief in New York since 2008. He has reported on the work of the U.N. extensively, particularly the Security Council, the General Assembly and the Sustainable Development Goals and is a sought after moderator for UN and Member State events working extensively with the Secretariat, UNWOMEN in particular and UNDP among others. He has conducted one-on-one interviews with Secretaries General Ban Ki Moon and Antonio Guterres, Director-General of the WTO Dr Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala; also Presidents Obama, Mbeki, Zuma and Ramaphosa among others. A South African national, Sherwin served as President of the UN Correspondents Association in 2017 and 2018. He is a graduate of the School of Journalism at Rhodes University in Grahamstown, South Africa and is a recipient of the University's 2016 Emerging Old Rhodian Award.

Achim Steiner, Administrator, UN Development Programme

Achim Steiner became UNDP Administrator on 19 June 2017 and will serve for a term of four years. The United Nations General Assembly confirmed his nomination on 19 April 2017, following his nomination by Secretary-General António Guterres. Mr. Steiner is also the Vice-Chair of the UN Sustainable Development Group, which unites 40 entities of the UN system that work to support sustainable development. Over nearly three decades, Achim Steiner has been a global leader on sustainable development, climate resilience and international cooperation. He has worked tirelessly to champion sustainability, economic growth and equality for the vulnerable, and has been a vocal advocate for the Sustainable Development Goals. Prior to joining UNDP, he was Director of the Oxford Martin School and Professorial Fellow of Balliol College, University of Oxford. Mr Steiner has served across the United Nations system, looking at global challenges from both a humanitarian and a development perspective. He led the United Nations Environment Programme (2006-2016), helping governments invest in clean technologies and renewable energy. He was also Director-General of the United Nations Office at Nairobi. Achim Steiner previously held other notable positions including Director General of the International Union for the Conservation of Nature, and Secretary General of the World Commission on Dams. Achim Steiner has lived and worked in Africa, Asia, the Middle East, Europe, Latin America and the United States. He graduated in Philosophy, Politics and Economics (MA) from Worcester College, Oxford University and holds an MA from the University of London/School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS).

Julien Harneis, UN Resident and Humanitarian Coordinator in Pakistan

Mr. Harneis brings 31 years of experience in development cooperation, humanitarian assistance and management. He was previously Deputy Humanitarian Coordinator in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), before which he served as Head of Office for the Office of Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs in Nigeria, UNICEF Representative in Yemen and Guinea, as well as humanitarian positions in the DRC, Lebanon and Indonesia. Before joining the United Nations, he worked in the private sector. Mr Harneis has a Master of Studies in International Relations from the University of Cambridge in the United Kingdom, and a Master of Business Administration from the Institut Européen d'Administration des Affaires (INSEAD) in France.

Philippe Isler, Executive Director, Global Alliance for Trade Facilitation

Philippe Isler is the Director for the Global Alliance For Trade Facilitation and is based at the World Economic Forum in Geneva, Switzerland. The Global Alliance aims at incubating and delivering trade facilitation projects from the bottom up by leveraging on funding and expertise from both donor countries and private sector companies working jointly. Has been leading trade facilitation initiatives for the past 15 years in many parts of the world. In particular, developed and deployed solutions aimed at digitizing the supply chain processes in a number of developing countries through public-private partnership mechanisms. Also spent 10 years developing traceability solutions aimed at tracking consignments transiting through countries with harsh environments. Formerly Vice-President at SGS Group leading government and institutions business development for trade community systems, e-government, telecom monitoring and port/customs operations. BSc in Aerospace Engineering, Bristol University.

Interactive Dialogue III (Part 1): Financial Ecosystem – Trade and Debt

Robin Ogilvy, Special Representative of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development to the United Nations

Since May 2018, Mr Robin Ogilvy has served as Special Representative of the OECD to the United Nations in New York. In this capacity, he co-ordinates the Organisation's efforts as Permanent Observer to the United Nations General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). Mr. Ogilvy has over 12 years' experience in development and public policy. Since 2014, he had served as Advisor in the Office of the OECD Secretary-General, supporting the delivery of corporate initiatives such as the OECD Action Plan on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), and efforts to further strengthen OECD-United Nations relations. Mr. Ogilvy joined the OECD in 2009, working as a Policy Analyst and subsequently Senior Policy Advisor on aid effectiveness in the Development Co-operation Directorate. Prior to joining the OECD, Mr. Ogilvy was Head of the Aid Coordination Unit at the United Nations in Rwanda. He has also been a Fellow of the UK-based Overseas Development Institute (ODI). Mr. Ogilvy, a dual national of France and the United Kingdom, holds a M.Phil. in Social and political science and an MA in Economics, both from the University of Cambridge (St. John's College).

Jeromin Zettelmeyer, Deputy Director, Strategy Policy and Review Department, International Monetary Fund

Jeromin Zettelmeyer has been Deputy Director of the Strategy, Policy and Review Department at the International Monetary Fund since September 2019, where he oversees work on sovereign debt and external policies. Prior to his IMF appointment, he was the Dennis Weatherstone Senior Fellow at the Peterson Institute for International Economics. From 2014 until September of 2016, he served as Director-General for Economic Policy at the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy. Before joining the German government, he was Director of Research and Deputy Chief Economist at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (2008–2014), and a staff member of the International Monetary Fund (1994-2008). He is a CEPR research fellow and a member of CESifo; and led CEPR's Research and Policy Network on European Economic Architecture during 2018-19. He holds degrees from the University of Bonn and MIT (Ph.D. 1994). He has published in major economics journals and is co-author of Debt Defaults and Lessons from a Decade of Crises, a study of sovereign debt crises during the 1990s and 2000s. His recent research has focused on European fiscal and financial architecture, sovereign debt, and economic nationalism.

Marcello Estevao, Global Director, Macroeconomics, Trade and Investment Global Practice, World Bank Group

Marcello de Moura Estevão Filho is the Global Director of the World Bank Group's Macroeconomics, Trade and Investment Global Practice (MTI). In this position, Mr. Estevão leads a large team of country economists, macroeconomists, and fiscal policy, debt, and macro-modeling experts. He is responsible for overseeing the delivery of the global analytical work on fiscal policy, debt policy, and economics of climate change; for coordinating the strategic direction of MTI and implementing it; for helping to shape and oversee MTI's country/regional programs; and for mobilizing staff to work more effectively across Equitable Growth, Finance and Institutions (EFI) and other Global Practices. Before joining the Bank, Mr. Estevão was Deputy Minister for International Affairs at the Ministry of Finance in Brazil until end-December 2018 and served as Brazil's G20 Deputy. He also served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the New Development Bank (Shanghai) and member of FUNCEF's Board of Directors. Prior to this position, he worked at Tudor Investment Corporation as the chief-economist for North America and Oceania, at the International Monetary Fund (IMF) as mission chief to Peru, Nicaragua and Barbados; and deputy chief of the Regional Studies Division, the North American Division, and the Latin-Caribbean Division, after working on several European countries and the Euro Area, and at the Research and Statistics Division of the Federal Reserve Board in Washington, DC, as a researcher and member of the Green Book forecast team.

Mr. Estevão is Brazilian, holds a PhD in Economics from MIT, Cambridge, MA, and has published extensively in refereed journals, books, policy reports, and the print media.

Jean-Marie Paugam, Deputy Director General, World Trade Organization

Ambassador Jean-Marie Paugam (France) has held senior management positions in the French Government on trade, most recently as Permanent Representative of France to the WTO. He has also held a number of senior positions in the French Ministry of Economy and Finance, including as a member of the Executive Committee of the French Treasury. He has also served as Deputy Executive Director of the International Trade Centre in Geneva. He has accumulated a deep and practical knowledge of government practices on trade as well as being familiar with high-level dialogues on trade and international economic operations. He has published a number of articles on trade-related issues, in particular when serving as Senior Research Fellow on International Trade at the French Institute for International Relations (IFPRI). Ambassador Paugam graduated from ENA in Paris and obtained degrees in Political Science from the Institute of Political Science in Aix-en-Provence and in Law from the Faculty of Law Aix-Marseille III.

Isabelle Durant, Acting Secretary General, United Nations Conference on Trade and Development

Ms. Isabelle Durant (Belgium) took office as Acting Secretary-General of UNCTAD on 16 February 2021, after over three years as UNCTAD's Deputy Secretary-General. Ms. Durant had a distinguished career in Belgian and European politics. She held the offices of Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Transport and Energy and Senator in the Belgian Government. She also served as Vice-President of the European Parliament and Presidency of the European Union Council of Ministers of Transport. Ms. Durant has a wealth of experience collaborating with civil society and the private sector as well, notably as the Vice-President responsible for relations between the European Parliament and civil society. Finally, Ms. Durant has held posts as a senior consultant on the empowerment of women in local government for the UNDP and as a member of Parliament of the Brussels-Capital Region in Belgium.

Interactive Dialogue III (Part 2): Financial Ecosystem – Financing the 2030 Agenda

Mr. Richard Martínez Alvarado, Vice President for Countries, Inter-American Development Bank

Richard Martínez Alvarado, an Ecuadorian citizen, was appointed Vice President for Countries on November 16, 2020. Prior to joining the IDB, he served as Minister of Economy and Finance of Ecuador since May 2018. In that role, he led the design and implementation of the Prosperity Plan, which supports fiscal consolidation, monetary stability, social protection, revitalization of employment and productivity, and transparency. He also reestablished Ecuador's relations with the international financial community, resulting in the country's first International Monetary Fund (IMF) Exceptional Access program; renegotiated Ecuador's private external debt; and restructured the country's bilateral debt with China. As Minister, Mr. Martínez spearheaded measures to safeguard jobs and industry. He also pursued initiatives to catalyze investment, simplify and strengthen the tax system, ensure sustainability of the public debt, secure the independence of the Central Bank, expand social protections and increase transparency in fuel pricing. During this period, Mr. Martínez also served as President of the Board of the Ecuadorian Development Bank (BEDE) and President of the Board of CAF (Development Bank of Latin America). He was also a member of the Global Coalition of Finance Ministers for Climate Action, an initiative that brings together 50 countries to lead a fair transition to a low-carbon economy, as well as a member of the World Bank Group's Advisory Council on Gender and Development, which advises on gender equality as a requirement for poverty reduction and shared prosperity. He was named a Young Global Leader by the World Economic Forum in 2019 and was chosen Latin American Finance Minister of the Year by GlobalMarkets newspaper in 2020. Previously, Mr. Martínez was President of the Ecuadorian Business Committee (2015-2018), President of the National Federation of Chambers of Industries of Ecuador (2015) and Executive President of the Chamber of Industries and Production of Ecuador (2014-2018). He also led the creation and implementation of Productive and Sustainable Ecuador 2030, a private-sector initiative that empowers actors across society to pursue the UN's Sustainable Development Goals through the Fourth Industrial Revolution. Mr. Martínez holds a degree in economics from the Catholic University of Ecuador, a postgraduate degree in international economics from the University of Barcelona and an MBA from Ecuador's IDE Business School. He has also taken specialized courses at Harvard University's Kennedy School, INCAE Business School, the Polytechnic University of Madrid and at several international organizations.

Ms. Anne Simpson, Managing Investment Director for Board Governance and Sustainability, CalPERS

Anne is CalPERS' Managing Investment Director for Board Governance & Sustainability, responsible for strategic initiatives across the total fund where she is a member of the Investment Management Committee and reports to the CEO. Anne leads CalPERS' Sustainable Investment Strategy, which focuses on long term value creation through the effective management of three forms of capital: financial, human and natural. Priorities include data and corporate reporting, research through the Sustainable Investments Research Initiative, financial markets regulation, climate change, diversity and inclusion, including emerging managers and CalPERS' work as co-founder of 3D (the Diverse Director DataSource). Anne oversees CalPERS' global partnerships including serving on the Steering Committee and chairing the Asia Advisory Group for Climate Action 100+, a global investor alliance of $54 trillion which CalPERS convened and co-founded. She was recently appointed to the California Governor's Climate Risk Disclosure Advisory Group and the Advisory Council of the Official Monetary and Financial Institutions Forum (OMFIF). Anne is also a member of the board at Ceres. Anne serves on the Senior Advisory Board at the Center for Responsible Business at Haas Business School where she is a Lecturer in Sustainable and Impact Finance. She is also a Senior Advisor at the Institute for Business in Society at UC Berkeley Law and Harvard's Institutional Investor Forum Advisory Council. Anne was formerly Senior Faculty Fellow and Lecturer at the Yale School of Management, where she taught with Ira Millstein on 'The Role of the Corporation in Society'.

Ms. Sonja Gibbs, Managing Director and Head of Sustainable Finance, Global Policy Initiatives, Institute of International Finance

Sonja has spent over 20 years in banking and financial markets, most recently with Nomura International in London, where she was Chief Equity Strategist. Previously she was Head of East European Economics and Senior European Bond Analyst, also for Nomura. Earlier positions included stints as a U.S. economist and bank credit analyst in New York and Los Angeles. She has taught undergraduate microeconomics at U.C. Berkeley, and spent several years with the Berkeley-Stanford Program on Soviet International Behavior. Sonja's work is widely cited in the financial press, including Bloomberg, the Wall Street Journal and the Financial Times; she is a regular speaker at industry conferences and has been a frequent commentator for financial television and radio in her strategist/analyst roles. Sonja's research interests include multi-asset investment strategy, with a focus on emerging/frontier markets, capital flows and ESG investment. She authors the IIF's Weekly Insight, which offers a concise perspective on global financial markets in the context of topical economic and political developments, and oversees the quarterly Global Debt Monitor, which looks across mature and emerging economies for debt-related vulnerabilities such as the rapid buildup in EM corporate debt levels. Sonja co-leads IIF policy work on sustainable finance and infrastructure investment, including advocacy and liaison efforts vis-à-vis the G20, the multilaterals and the international regulatory community.

Ms. Preeti Sinha, Executive Secretary, UN Capital Development Fund

Ms. Sinha is a globally experienced investment and development banker with a 30-year track record associated with raising and managing institutional public and private development capital. She served as CEO & President of FFD Financing for Development LLC, a specialist development finance firm focused on financing the UN SDGs. Ms. Sinha's role as CEO and President was built upon her experience as a pioneering Global Leadership Fellow at the World Economic Forum, on the Financing for Development Initiative, with the UN FFD Office. Ms. Sinha managed the YES Global Institute, a practicing private sector think-tank for socio-economic development in New Delhi, building the impact investment ecosystem in India. She also served in senior resource mobilization roles at the African Development Bank including managing its ADF-13 Replenishment raising US$ 7.3 billion from 27 donor countries. Previously, she was an investment banker at HSBC, Rabobank, Lehman Brothers and JP Morgan in London, Hong Kong, Mumbai and New York. Ms. Sinha graduated from the Harvard Kennedy School of Government Executive Education program in Public Financial Management. She also holds a Masters in Global Leadership from the World Economic Forum and a Masters in Public and Private Management (MPPM)/MBA from the Yale School of Management (SOM). Ms. Sinha graduated from Dartmouth College with Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Computer Science.

Mr. Navid Hanif, Director, Financing for Sustainable Development Office, UN DESA

Mr. Navid Hanif is the Director of the Financing for Sustainable Development Office of the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UNDESA). He is also the UN sous Sherpa to the G20 finance and main tracks. He joined UNDESA in 2001. He was Senior Policy Adviser in the Division for Sustainable Development and member of the team for the World Summit on Sustainable Development held in Johannesburg in 2002. He later joined the office of the Under-Secretary General for UNDESA and focused on departmental initiatives in various policy areas. He worked as the Chief of Policy Coordination Branch in the office for Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) support. He also served as the Director of this office from 2011-2018. He was the first head of the DESA Strategic Planning Unit established in 2010. He was Principal Officer in the Office of the United Nations Secretary-General and worked as a member of the team for the 2005 World Summit. He was Vice-Chair of the UN High Level Committee on Programming (HLCP) and Co-Coordinator of the UN team on repositioning of the UN Development System that led to major reforms in 2018. He has contributed a number of articles on financing and investing in the SDGs in various journals and reports.

Robin Ogilvy, Special Representative of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development to the United Nations

Since May 2018, Mr Robin Ogilvy has served as Special Representative of the OECD to the United Nations in New York. In this capacity, he co-ordinates the Organisation's efforts as Permanent Observer to the United Nations General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). Mr. Ogilvy has over 12 years' experience in development and public policy. Since 2014, he had served as Advisor in the Office of the OECD Secretary-General, supporting the delivery of corporate initiatives such as the OECD Action Plan on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), and efforts to further strengthen OECD-United Nations relations. Mr. Ogilvy joined the OECD in 2009, working as a Policy Analyst and subsequently Senior Policy Advisor on aid effectiveness in the Development Co-operation Directorate. Prior to joining the OECD, Mr. Ogilvy was Head of the Aid Coordination Unit at the United Nations in Rwanda. He has also been a Fellow of the UK-based Overseas Development Institute (ODI). Mr. Ogilvy, a dual national of France and the United Kingdom, holds a M.Phil. in Social and political science and an MA in Economics, both from the University of Cambridge (St. John's College).