Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 10 September 2021

[without reference to a Main Committee (A/75/L.135)]

75/326. Modalities for the international meeting entitled “Stockholm+50: a healthy planet for the prosperity of all – our responsibility, our opportunity”

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 75/280 of 24 May 2021 in its entirety, including its decision to convene the international meeting entitled “Stockholm+50: a healthy planet for the prosperity of all – our responsibility, our opportunity”, in Stockholm, on 2 and 3 June 2022, during the week of World Environment Day, to commemorate the 50 years since the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment and its outcome documents, as a contribution to the environmental dimension of sustainable development to accelerate the implementation of commitments in the context of the decade of action and delivery for sustainable development, including a sustainable recovery from the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic,

1. Welcomes the generous offer of the Government of Sweden to host and assume the costs of the international meeting entitled “Stockholm+50: a healthy planet for the prosperity of all – our responsibility, our opportunity”, with the support of the Government of Kenya;

2. Decides that the international meeting should be mutually reinforcing with the commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the creation of the United Nations Environment Programme, UNEP@50, avoiding overlap and duplication;

3. Also decides that the international meeting and its preparation shall provide for the effective participation of all States Members of the United Nations, members of the United Nations specialized agencies and parties to the multilateral environment agreements;¹

4. Encourages participation in the international meeting at the highest possible level;

5. Decides that the international meeting shall elect from among the representatives of participating States the following officers: two Presidents, one from Sweden and one from Kenya, and eight Vice-Presidents,² one of whom shall be designated as Rapporteur-General;

6. Also decides that the international meeting shall comprise an opening segment, four plenary meetings and three leadership dialogues, and a closing segment, to be held on 2 and 3 June 2022;

7. Further decides that the opening segment of the international meeting shall include a commemorative moment dedicated to the United Nations Conference on the Human Environment, held in Stockholm from 5 to 16 June 1972;

8. Decides that the plenary meetings will be held as follows:

Thursday, 2 June: from 9.30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m.

Friday, 3 June: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 7 p.m.;

9. Also decides that the leadership dialogues will be held in parallel with the plenary meetings, as follows:

Thursday, 2 June: from 3 to 6 p.m.

Friday, 3 June: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m.;

10. Further decides that the leadership dialogues shall be collaborative and multi-stakeholder in nature and will focus on recommendations that contribute to the environmental dimension of sustainable development to accelerate the implementation of commitments in the context of the decade of action and delivery for sustainable development, including a sustainable recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic, including through strengthened cooperation, taking into account the theme of the international meeting;

11. Decides that the organizational arrangements for the leadership dialogues will be as follows:

¹ For the purposes of the international meeting, the multilateral environment agreements shall be understood as referring to the following treaties: Basel Convention on the Control of Transboundary Movements of Hazardous Wastes and Their Disposal; Cartagena Protocol on Biosafety to the Convention on Biological Diversity; Convention on Biological Diversity; Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora; Convention on the Conservation of Migratory Species of Wild Animals; Kyoto Protocol; Minamata Convention on Mercury; Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer; Paris Agreement; Rotterdam Convention on the Prior Informed Consent Procedure for Certain Hazardous Chemicals and Pesticides in International Trade; Stockholm Convention on Persistent Organic Pollutants; United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification in Those Countries Experiencing Serious Drought and/or Desertification, Particularly in Africa; United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change; and Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer.

² Two from each of the following groups: African States; Asia-Pacific States; Eastern European States; Latin American and Caribbean States; and Western European and other States. The election of the Presidents will, however, have the effect of reducing by one the number of Vice-Presidents allocated to the regions from which each of the Presidents is elected.

(a) The leadership dialogues will address the following themes:

Leadership dialogue 1: Reflecting on the urgent need for actions to achieve a healthy planet and prosperity of all;

Leadership dialogue 2: Achieving a sustainable and inclusive recovery from the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic;

Leadership dialogue 3: Accelerating the implementation of the environmental dimension of sustainable development in the context of the decade of action and delivery for sustainable development;

(b) Each leadership dialogue will be presided over by two Co-Chairs, one from a developing country and one from a developed country, to be appointed by the two Presidents of the international meeting;

12. Invites participants to share experiences and initiatives to protect our planet and contribute to sustainable development, including a sustainable, resilient and inclusive recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic;

13. Invites all relevant stakeholders, including women, youth, older persons, persons with disabilities, indigenous peoples and local communities, to contribute to the discussions of the international meeting and their preparation and to build momentum for a healthy planet for the prosperity of all;

14. Invites the Secretary-General to appoint the Executive Director of the United Nations Environment Programme as the Secretary-General of the international meeting;

15. Requests the Secretary-General of the international meeting to prepare by the end of March 2022 a concept note and draft background papers for each of the leadership dialogues for the international meeting before its preparatory meeting;

16. Requests the President of the General Assembly to convene a one-day preparatory meeting no later than April 2022, at United Nations Headquarters in New York, to be chaired by the co-hosts of the international meeting, with interpretation services on an as-available basis, with a view to considering the preparations for the leadership dialogues and other preparations for the international meeting;

17. Recommends the provisional agenda set forth in annex I to the present resolution for adoption by the international meeting;

18. Decides that the international meeting shall be organized in accordance with the organization of work set forth in annex II to the present resolution;

19. Also decides that the rules relating to the procedure and the established practice of the General Assembly apply, mutatis mutandis, to the procedure of the international meeting;

20. Requests the two Presidents of the international meeting to prepare a summary of the discussions, with the support of the Secretary-General of the international meeting, to be presented to the international meeting;

21. Requests the President of the General Assembly, with support from the United Nations Environment Programme, to finalize the organizational arrangements for the international meeting no later than April 2022;

22. Decides to invite to the international meeting and its preparatory meeting representatives of organizations and other entities that have received a standing invitation from the General Assembly pursuant to its relevant resolutions to participate, in the capacity of observer, in its sessions and work, on the understanding that such representatives would participate in the international meeting in that capacity;

23. Invites non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council with relevant expertise to register with the Secretariat to participate in the international meeting and its preparatory meeting;

24. Invites other relevant stakeholders, including organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, intergovernmental organizations, international financial institutions, other interested international bodies and non-governmental organizations, including those that have an interest in the field of the environment, civil society organizations, indigenous peoples’ organizations, academic institutions, the scientific community, the private sector and philanthropic organizations, to seek accreditation in accordance with the provisions set forth in annex II to the present resolution, to participate as observers in the international meeting and its preparatory meeting;

25. Decides that accreditation to the international meeting shall be in accordance with the provisions set forth in annex II to the present resolution;

26. Encourages States and international donors, as well as the private sector, financial institutions, foundations and other donors in a position to do so, to support the preparations for the international meeting through voluntary contributions to a trust fund in support of preparations for the international meeting and to support the participation of representatives of developing countries in the international meeting.
